Jordan Under Martial Law, Blames Reds

Navy Force Believed Bound for Mid East

JORDANIANS RAGE AGAINST UNITED STATES—Led by man sitting on shoulders of another, rioting crowd in Amman, capital of Jordan, shouts anti-American slogans in day-long demonstration (April 24). Young King Hussein of the troubled Arab country blamed international Communism and its followers for the riots and the political crisis threatening his regime. (AP Wirephoto by radio from London)

Visit Cut In France By Order

Move Likely Is To Help Hussein

Cannes, France, April 25 (AP)—The U. S. supercarrier Forrestal and a force of cruisers and destroyers broke off goodwill visits to southern France today and put to sea, presumably for Middle Eastern waters.

Destination of the force was not announced but it was assumed the ships were bound for the area where Jordan's King Hussein is fighting to keep leftists and Communists from control of his kingdom.

With the 60,000-ton supercarrier, the navy's biggest, went the cruisers Salem and Des Moines and a covey of 15 escorting destroyers.

The Forrestal and Salem had been scheduled to stay on the French Riviera until April 30. The Des Moines and her three escorts had been visiting Marseille.

Sudden Orders

The Forrestal's orders came so suddenly that she left 150 of her crew on leave in Paris. The U. S. Navy attache in the French capital was alerted to round up the men, presumably to fly them to join their ship. Their absence could hardly hamper the operations of the big carrier, which has a crew of some 3,500 men.

The orders to sail came through early this morning and French tugs were rushed to help the big American ships get to sea. They sailed just before noon.

Jordan Freedom Vital

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles yesterday said they regarded Jordan's "independence and integrity as vital." Newsmen at the vacation White House in Augusta, Ga., considered their declaration a warning against any Communist aggression toward the threatened country, possibly foreshadowing American help under the Eisenhower doctrine if Hussein asked for it.

However, the king told American newsmen in Amman yesterday "I think we can handle this situation by ourselves."

The carrier came to the French coast from Middle East waters, where she made goodwill visits to Turkey and Lebanon.

Plans Change

The sudden change in the Forrestal's plans caused an unexpected 6 a. m. reveille for a group of journalists and members of west European parliaments who spent the night aboard. They had been scheduled to sail with the ship today for a demonstration of her fighting power.

Rear Adm. M. E. Arnold, commander of the 4th division of the 6th fleet, told his guests the carrier and her escort "must put to sea in a few hours for an undetermined period" on orders from "superior authorities."

"This unexpected hitch could not be avoided," the admiral added. "I know you will understand."

Summer Start on Routes Scheduled

4-Lane Creek Span Need Stressed to CC

Need for a four-lane bridge over the Rondout creek was noted at the annual membership business meeting of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce in the court house last night at which it was also revealed that major highway projects are due to be under way in the summer.

Work is likely to start, it was indicated, on the city's arterial route system, Route 28 from Shandaken to Highmount is due for immediate improvement, the Route 55 by-pass of Kerhonkson has started, and survey work is expected to start on the so-called Route 209 by-pass west of the city.

Bridge Too Narrow

Kurt G. Rauer, district engineer in Poughkeepsie, of the state public works department, said work is likely to start on the arterial plan, and he called attention to the need for a four-lane bridge over the Rondout creek to replace the narrow span at the foot of Wurts street.

Other speakers included Roland Green, county highway superintendent, who noted that the department has 460 miles of road and 160 bridges under its control, and Deputy Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, who emphasized lack of off-street parking facilities, especially in the uptown and central Broadway areas. President Vincent R. Burns, conducted the meeting.

Outlines Projects

Engineer Rauer outlined several major local and area highway projects which will get under way this year or in the next year or two. He stated that the Washington avenue viaduct removal project, together with a new modern bridge over the Esopus creek, is being planned and will be started as soon as the arterial route is completed. The contract for the connecting link from the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge to Route 9-W will be let about the middle of May and work should start immediately. Plans for a new Eddyville bridge over the Rondout Creek are ready for contract and should be announced in the near future. He also reported that the State has taken over the maintenance of the E. Chester Street By-Pass and that re-surfacing should start soon.

A panel discussion was held on "Traffic and Related Problems." N. Jansen Fowler, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Planning Council, was the moderator. He called attention to the disastrous effects of traffic congestion and shortage of parking. He presented the panelists who were Mr. Rauer; Roland Green, county superintendent of highways; Deputy Chief Robert Murphy, head of the traffic division of the local police department and George Svirsky, chairman of the chamber's parking committee.

To Change By-Laws

Several proposed amendments to the by-laws of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce were presented and after some discussion unanimously approved. One change provides for a new procedure in electing directors. A nominating committee will be named in September which will prepare a list of from

DR. HENRY N. MacCRACKEN

Area History Is Subject Monday At St. James Hall

President emeritus of Vassar College, Dr. Henry Noble MacCracken, will address the Friends of the Senate House and their guests at St. James Methodist Church Hall here Monday at 8 p. m.

Well Known Author

Dr. MacCracken is the distinguished author of "Old Dutchess Forever" which has won high acclaim from many of the outstanding critics since its publication last month. This volume established its author as an eminent local historian. The book not only traces the founding and development of Dutchess county but also interweaves with the historical facts the folklore of the area which makes his book a living record of the county and its people.

Since his appointment as president of Vassar College, Poughkeepsie in 1915, Dr. MacCracken has taken a keen interest in the history and folk traditions of Dutchess county. He has spoken 150 times on the "Nuggets of History" program sponsored by a Poughkeepsie radio station.

Public Welcome

A distinguished educator and an established authority on both Chaucer and Shakespeare, Dr. MacCracken has also served as vice-president of the Dutchess County Historical Society.

In his talk next Monday evening, he will discuss the early relations between Dutchess and Ulster counties. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

Loyal Army Takes Over Full Hold

Khalidi Resigns, King Determined

Amman, Jordan, April 25 (AP)—The future of Jordan hung in the balance today.

A new government was named here and martial law clamped on the country.

King Hussein declared his intention to fight out the crisis. He blamed International communism for bringing it on.

The United States voiced support anew for the independence and integrity of Jordan—and ordered its 6th Fleet back into the eastern Mediterranean.

10 Parties Abolished

Today a total curfew was imposed on the capital city of Amman, the old City of Jerusalem, Nablus, Ramallah and Irbid near the Syrian frontier.

Under the decree of martial law police were put under control of the army, whose tough core Bedouin fighters are loyal to King Hussein.

The country's 10 political parties were abolished.

Ibrahim Hashem, 83, was chosen to head a seven-man cabinet of moderates.

The eight-day-old cabinet of Hussein Khalidi resigned last night after six hours of rioting by mobs inspired by Communists and other extremist factions.

Aid Not Needed

King Hussein insisted in talk with American reporters that he did not need outside assistance.

Hussein stressed this again today. He disclosed he would not invite Rep. James P. Richards, special representative of President Eisenhower to Amman to explain the President's Middle East program. Hussein said he would decide "with other Arab states" whether they would accept the Eisenhower program.

The American stand supporting Jordan's integrity, and calling it vital to U. S. interests and world peace, was a restatement of the Eisenhower doctrine. The White House reiterated it last night, presumably about the time orders were going out to the U. S. 6th Fleet to leave Italian and French ports and head into eastern Mediterranean waters. The aircraft carrier Forrestal left Cannes, France.

The fleet was in the eastern Mediterranean at the home of the Suez crisis last fall.

Britain Pledges Aid

Britain also joined in proclaiming Jordan's independence essential to Middle East peace. A British foreign office spokesman said Hussein had made no call for aid from the British, who formerly sustained Jordan's army with an annual cash subsidy.

At the time he spoke last night he evidently had in mind the change of government that came today, since he said there would be developments to strengthen his hand.

(Troops of Saudi Arabia and Syria came into parts of Jordan last fall and have remained there. Today travelers reaching Damascus reported Hussein was using Saudi troops to quell riots west of the river Jordan.

Calls Reds 'Spies'

Hussein broadcast to his people for a half hour today.

He spoke out against Communists, calling them "spies behind our lines."

In a low, solemn voice the 21-year-old king sought to identify the forces which he blamed for the government crisis that has

Veto Seen On Labor Measures

Special Session May Be Outcome

Albany, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—Prospects appeared strong today that Gov. Harriman would veto the Republicans' labor-benefit bills and, perhaps, call a special session of the Legislature to consider new measures.

The Democratic governor heard a succession of veto and special-session pleas from politically friendly groups at a public hearing yesterday.

Those Who Oppose

Among those who denounced the legislation were the State CIO, the AFL, the International Ladies Garment Workers Union, the Liberal Party and New York city's Democratic mayor, Robert F. Wagner.

Support for the measures came principally from business and employer organizations that usually side with the Republican party.

The bill would raise from $36 to $45 maximum weekly benefits of unemployment insurance and workmen's compensation. Harriman asked for these increases but he has assailed other provisions in the bills that also have prompted veto demands from the unions and from seasonal industries, such as the apparel and construction trades.

Monday Deadline

Harriman has until midnight Monday—when the legal, 30-day bill-signing period ends—to decide whether he should sign or veto them. He called the hearing to help him with his decision.

Influential Republican Sen. John H. Hughes of Syracuse, who helped draft the measures, had styled the hearing as "a political buildup for a veto" and

Port Ewen Is To Dedicate School Sunday

The new $420,000 Port Ewen School, Clay road, which was opened for classes Jan. 2, will be dedicated in ceremonies scheduled Sunday at 2 p. m. in the school auditorium, it was announced today by Robert Graves, principal.

An open house will follow the dedication program to which the public is invited. There will be an inspection tour of the building.

Speakers scheduled for the ceremony include District Superintendent Clarence Johnson; Ralph Johnson, former district superintendent; Rolf Dreyer, of Poughkeepsie, architect who designed the building; William Campbell, of the Campbell Building Co., Poughkeepsie, which constructed the new school, and school trustees.

The new building contains 14 class rooms, an all-purpose room (cafeteria, gymnasium and auditorium) office suites, health suites and a teachers' room.

Two Are Feared Dead in Plane Crash in Hudson

Tarrytown, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—A small plane carrying a flying instructor and a student crashed into the Tappen Zee Bridge over the Hudson river today and police said both occupants were killed.

The plane was owned by the Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., Flying Service and took off on an instruction flight at 9:15 a. m., with Robert Zeh, of Irvington, N. Y., instructor, and Eugene Huelsman, of (32 Burnside Dr.) Hastings, N. Y., the student.

One Body Found

One body was recovered from the river, but it was not immediately identified. The plane

Corrupt Practices Must Go

Ike Calls for Laws To Clean Up Labor

Augusta, Ga., April 25 (AP)—President Eisenhower today called labor racketeering "an abomination which must be eliminated." He said union leaders who abuse power and trust "are not fit to hold union offices."

Names Provisions

Eisenhower expressed those views in a statement after a 90 minute conference here with Secretary of Labor Mitchell. The President called for swift enactment of legislation to provide for:

1. Registration, reporting and public disclosure of full data on union health and welfare funds. The administration already has a bill before Congress to take care of that.

2. Public disclosure of all other financial records of unions, including such items as dues collected, the salaries of union officials, and the amount of money in union treasuries.

Must Be Eliminated

In his statement the President said the administration has followed "with intense interest" the efforts of a Senate special committee "to bring to light disclosures of corrupt practices and abuses by officers and members of some labor unions." Eisenhower added:

"Labor racketeering, like corruption anywhere, is an abomination which must be eliminated if and whenever it occurs. Any officer and employe of labor—and it appears there have been few—who abuse the power and trust imposed upon them are not fit to hold union offices.

"The American working man and woman deserve from labor leadership high standards of trust and fidelity."

Won't Get Personal

A highlight of the Senate committee's activities so far has been its inquiry into the financial operations of Dave Beck, chief of the AFL-CIO Teamsters union. Beck declined to answer questions in that field. He invoked the Fifth amendment on grounds that replies might tend to incriminate him.

At the Mitchell news conference a reporter noted that Eisenhower in his statement said it appears a few labor leaders have abused power and trust.

Asked whether that applied to Beck, Mitchell replied:

"I am not going to get into personalities and I am not going to prejudge."

Support Voluntary

In the 1956 election campaign Beck supported Eisenhower for a second term. Replying to a question, Mitchell said that support was "completely unsolicit-

16 Pass Written Test Given for Police Positions

Of 31 applicants who took a civil service written examination to establish an eligibility list for appointment of patrolmen, 16 have passed, Martin F. Kelly, secretary of the Municipal Civil Service Commission reported today.

The 16 will take physical tests May 4 and they will be followed by agility tests to be conducted by the State Municipal Service Division of the State Civil Service Commission.

Two More Tests

A list of those who meet all requirements and their ratings in the tests will be announced after the physical examination and agility test.

A promotional examination to establish eligibility lists for the permanent appointment of a deputy chief, lieutenants and sergeants will be held May 11 at 9 a. m. in the high school. These will be taken by 23 men of the department. Two will take the deputy chief test, four sergeants will try the examination for lieutenancies and 17 patrolmen will take the sergeants' test.

Notices Sent

Kelly said that notices have been sent to those who took the patrolmen's examination earlier this year to inform them of the results. Of 32 who originally applied to take the written test, one failed to appear on the day of the examination.

An examination last year to establish an eligibility list resulted in only three of 26 applicants receiving passing marks. Six passed the written examination, but three failed in the physical and agility tests.

A&P Planning Market Uptown, Hearing Told

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company has negotiated for the purchase of a site off Hurley avenue, near Taylor street, on which to construct a supermarket, it was disclosed at a zoning hearing held last night at city hall.

The Cordts Realty Corporation requested a business-zone designation for the property at last night's hearing. The property was described as a site off Hurley avenue and west of Taylor street.

Attorney James G. Connelly, representing the realty company, said a contract between Cordts and the A & P has been signed for the purchase of the property but the sale is predicated on approval of the site as a business zone.

Second Ward Alderman William S. Keyser, chairman of the Laws and Rules committee of the Common Council, which conducted last night's hearings, said the request was unopposed.

A & P presently operates two stores in the city—one on Prince street and another on North Front street.

Another request for a business-zone designation of a property on North street was opposed by a group of residents "within 500 feet of the site."

Dominic and Rose Yonta and Betty Spada were listed as applicants for the North street change.

Alderman Keyser said a petition signed by the North street residents opposed the change because the applicants had not indicated any definite future use for the property.

It was indicated by the petitioners, Alderman Keyser said, that their opposition stemmed from a belief that the property might be used for a mushroom plant.

Attorney Thomas Saccoman represented the North street property owners.

The Laws and Rules committee probably will make recommendations on the applications at the next meeting of the Common Council, which is scheduled May 7, Alderman Keyser said.

Upstate Patrolman Held as Guard AWOL

Rochester, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—A Rochester policeman was being held by U.S. Army authorities today on a charge of being absent without leave from a national guard unit since September, 1950.

The policeman, James W. Jarvis, 32, was arrested by army MPs yesterday. Jarvis has been a patrolman here since January, 1956.

An army spokesman said Jarvis would be transferred today from the Erie County Penitentiary, where he was held overnight, to Ft. Dix, N. J., for a hearing.

President Follows Crisis in Jordan, Calls Independence Vital to Peace

Augusta, Ga., April 25 (AP)—President Eisenhower kept a close watch today on the crisis in the Jordan government after moving to bolster young King Hussein's shaky regime against collapse and possible communist control.

The President, mixing work and vacation at the Augusta National Golf Club, discussed the tense situation by telephone with Secretary of State Dulles yesterday and arranged to get up-to-the-minute news reports from the cabinet officer. Dulles called from Washington.

After the phone conference Eisenhower and Dulles put out a statement saying they regard "the independence and integrity of Jordan as vital" to U. S. interests and world peace.

It was at once what amounted to a warning against any Communist aggression in Jordan and a seeming invitation to that small mideast nation to ask for American aid.

On the latter count, White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty took pains to indicate that the cloth cut when Congress recently approved Eisenhower's anti-Communist Middle East resolution could well fit the Jordan situation.

The resolution provides for granting U. S. military and economic aid to any Communist-threatened Mideast nation which asks for such aid. One section of the resolution, Hagerty volunteered, says:

"The United States regards as vital to the national interest and world peace the preservation of the independence and integrity of the nations of the Middle East."

This was the first time since its approval by Congress a few weeks ago that the administration his cited the Eisenhower Mideast doctrine in such a pointed way in relation to any crisis in that area.

The President's concern obviously was stirred by continuing unrest in Jordan where two cabinet ministers reported that Premier Hussein Khalidi's government had resigned. It has been

Must Meet Requirements With School to Save Aid

Robert B. O'Reilly, vice-president of the Board of Education, said in a statement today that he wanted to emphasize that the $74,000 referred to in a Lions Club talk Tuesday was a loss in state aid, if certain requirements are not met.

Some persons, he indicated have apparently been led to believe that his talk dealt with abandonment of plans for construction of a junior high school.

Mr. O'Reilly, speaking for the education board, said that the $74,000 referred to Tuesday "would represent a loss in state aid to the Kingston School District," if the board failed "to provide the minimum junior high school program, as mandated by the state education department.

The education department pays to the school district, Mr. O'Reilly stated, $330 per year for each elementary student and $412.50 per year for each junior high and high school student. If a school district does not provide such special facilities as homemaking, physical education,

Study Church Merger

Easton, Pa., April 25 (AP)—A merger with two other groups of Evangelical United Brethren Church was before the denomination's 150th annual East Pennsylvania Conference today. The conference is considering its merger with the Atlantic Conference and the New England Conference. A two-thirds vote by each conference would be required for creation of a new Northeastern Conference with a membership of 30,000 and 147 congregations.

Rebels Kill 150

Jakarta, April 25 (AP) — An army spokesman announced today that Darul Islam rebels recently killed 150 persons near Makassar, capital of The Celebes. The spokesman declined to say whether these were victims of last week's clash between Moslem rebels and central government troops which army spokesman Major Harsono described as the "most serious incident in 11 years."

Good Buys in Pork, Poultry For Thrifty Market Shoppers

(By The Associated Press)

Housewives shopping around for bargains at the meat counter this week will find good buys in pork and poultry.

Those are the two meat items most frequently featured by the big food chains for thrift-conscious buyers this week-end.

Chickens ready for frying or broiling are probably the outstanding buy. Price cuts from last week range from two cents a pound in some areas to as much as ten cents a pound.

Pork loin is also attractively priced in many cities, and you'll find an occasional special in leg or shoulder of veal.

Beef prices continue to inch higher. Market specialists say most cuts of beef are expected to go up a little more in price in the next few weeks and then hold steady for a month or two. No immediate downturn is in sight. By and large, prices of the cheaper cuts are going up faster than those of the choicer grades.

Sirloin steak is up a penny or two a pound from last week in some cities; rib roast is up anywhere from 2 to 6 cents a pound. Lamb prices are pretty close to last week's levels.

Butter prices are up a shade; egg prices generally a little lower.

Plenty of Vegetables

Fresh vegetables of many kinds are in plentiful supply this week. You'll find a wide assortment of bargains to choose from in salad greens and other vegetables of the "leafy" type—iceberg and Romaine lettuce from the southwest; new green cabbage from Georgia and Florida; spinach, kale, broccoli and turnip tops from North Carolina and Virginia.

Potatoes are listed as excellent buys in many parts of the country. Maine potatoes are classed as "outstanding" bargains by the U. S. Department of Agriculture while White Sebago and Red Bliss potatoes from Florida and Russets and Long Whites from Idaho are described as offering good value.

For choosier palates, there's asparagus from California and New Jersey and sweet potatoes and yams from North Carolina and Louisiana.

Vary on Quality

Citrus fruits are still plentiful, but some—notably tangerines and Temple oranges — vary greatly in quality and should be chosen with care. Good buys include grapefruit and Valencia oranges from Florida, and Navel oranges and lemons from California.

Several varieties of apples are moderately priced, including McIntosh apples from Massachusetts, Vermont and New York, Winesaps from Washington State, and Arkansas Blacks.

For luxury tastes, imported grapes from Chile can be found on U. S. produce counters this week. There are Emperor grapes, rich and red; Almerias, a pale green, and jet black Ribiers.

Florida limes, a popular ingredient of warm weather drinks, are in ample supply and moderately priced in most major cities.

Yesterday's Poultry Market

New York, April 24 (AP) — (USDA)—Live poultry. Receipts of caponettes moderate; other classes light. Trading good for hens and fryers; slow for caponettes; moderate for pullets. Market firm for hens; steady for fryers; unsettled for pullets; weak for caponettes. By express: Hens, blacks 6-7 lbs 26; leghorns 20. pullets, crosses 5 lbs and up 38-39; rocks 5 lbs and up 39. Broilers or fryers, reds 3-4 lbs average 28; rocks 3-4 lbs average 26-28, average 23. Caponettes, rocks 4½-5 lbs 23-26, few early sales 27-28; White Rock pullets 4-4½ lbs 25-27; crosses 4-4½ lbs 23-24; red crosses 5 lbs and up 30.

Dressed poultry: Turkeys weak; squabs and ducks about steady. Turkeys, fresh, ice packed, young hens 10-14 lbs 36½-37. Young toms 16-22 lbs 31-32, 22-24 lbs 32-34.

TESTS FOR RADIATION

One inevitable result of the use of atomic energy, whether for bombs or power, is that the amount of radioactivity in our surroundings will increase. It may never reach levels harmful to human well-being. This is a moot point. There is also still room for argument as to the amount of radioactivity human beings can tolerate. But no one disputes the fact that bomb tests and other uses of atomic energy will raise the amount of radiation about us.

This has prompted the U. S. Public Health Service to establish a system of regular checks to keep an eye on the situation. Perhaps a dozen monitoring stations will be set up in various parts of the country this year, and about 150 test points will be maintained eventually.

Such testing is important, not because there is any immediate danger that milk and water may be contaminated, but because the Public Health Service will be able to set up standards at this early stage of the atomic era. With these standards as a base point, health authorities in years to come will be able to determine when radiation is nearing dangerous levels.

Numerous other steps will have to be taken as we move toward wider use of atomic energy. Much research needs to be done, in the laboratory and in the field, on such things as the disposal of atomic waste, wildlife conservation, and agriculture. The USPHS testing program is a good start, but it deals with only one phase of the complex problems which accompany use of the atom's hidden powers.

DRIVER'S OBLIGATION

There is almost universal agreement in this country, by now, that anyone who drives an automobile should be able to pass tests involving certain basic driving skills and at least a fair working knowledge of traffic regulations. Many older drivers have never passed such tests, but the day will soon come when almost everyone on the road will have done so.

Though such tests are good, they do not go far enough. America's terrible record of death, injury and property damage from auto accidents is ample proof that something is lacking.

What we lack is any systematic indoctrination of drivers in their social responsibility on the road. The present system emphasizes knowing and obeying the letter of the law, but relatively little is said about the spirit of the law or about each driver's moral obligation to drive in such a way that he does not frustrate or endanger others on the road.

Driving has become competitive, and this spirit of competition on the road leads to a very large number of accidents. What is needed is a thorough change of emphasis. There should be strong pressure for cooperation rather than competition in driving. Yielding a bit, slowing down to let the other fellow go by, staying in one lane instead of jockeying for postion to save a few seconds on the way home—these require a certain moral stamina, but they are well worth the effort.

An editorial writer is further convinced of the power of the paper for which he works. His wife has used the sheet, folded several times, to discipline the family dog.

BALLOT PICTURES

Abraham Lincoln might never have become president if the gist of a bill introduced into the Minnesota legislature had been national law in his day. This would require the pictures of all candidates to be printed on the ballots. If good looks had been decisive, Lincoln might have remained an obscure Illinois politician.

The practice of picturing candidates on the ballot fails to show anything about fundamental fitness, and emphasizes the trivial matter of personal appearance. It is to be hoped that the idea does not become popular.

A Chicago couple sought a divorce because neither could stand the other's cooking. One wonders why they didn't compromise on a good restaurant and live happily ever after.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

HE DOTH PROTEST

Methinks, Lester Pearson of Canada doth protest too much. He has burgeoned the suicide of Herbert Norman, sad as it is, into a political issue, not only domestically in Canada but internationally between the United States and Canada.

Cut away the diplomatic drippings of his demands and they come down to the proposition that no Congressional committee shall ever investigate a Canadian even though what is being investigated is an American matter. Does that mean that no Congressional committee is ever to study the Canadian Newsprint Cartel which is causing so much havoc to the free press of this country? Does that mean that no Congressional committee is ever to investigate the effect upon the United States economy of the Canadian Whiskey Cartel which does 90 per cent of its business within the United States? Does Pearson wish that no investigation be made of Canadian fraudulent stocks sold over the counter in the United States and costing the American public, it has been estimated, about one million dollars a day?

Lester Pearson must know that years ago when Elizabeth Bentley was testifying about her own Communist activities, she, in Executive Session, mentioned a Canadian. That testimony has been suppressed for all these years. I am not saying that I know what was in this testimony taken in Executive Session before a Congressional committee because no one is supposed to know what happens behind those closed doors. But surely no one will deny that there was such testimony by Elizabeth Bentley.

But now that Lester Pearson is risking the normally good relations between Canada and the United States over the suicide of Herbert Norman, would it not be of value to make public everything there is on the subject so that whatever is false may be denied? It would also be interesting if a Senate committee might bring back to the United States our Ambassador to Portugal, James Bonbright, to ask him under oath what he did with the copy of the Bentley testimony which he was instructed to give to the Prime Minister of Canada, who, I understand, never received it.

There is no value in two countries hating each other because someone lied or made a mistake. There is enough trouble in this world without stirring up more for personal or political reasons. Lester Pearson says that he knew that Herbert Norman had "in his student days" associated with Communists. He says that he investigated and cleared Norman in 1951. Where is the record of such an investigation and such clearance? As much of Herbert Norman's personal and political activities were in the United States and in Japan in association with Americans, it would have been of value for our people to know, as far back as 1951, that Norman had been investigated and cleared by his own government in some formal manner.

But what would be interesting would be to know if the Canadian Mounties have a copy of Elizabeth Bentley's testimony, made in Executive Session, and whether they have any corroborative data concerning it or, having checked, they found Miss Bentley's testimony untrue.

It is always sad when a man commits suicide. It is somehow even sadder when a man of talent and promise and high position finds that he has no hope left and he jumps off a roof. There are easier ways of committing suicide. Herbert Norman was making a public demonstration. It could not be over the fact that he had dined with John K. Emmerson in Beirut, which is the only pertinent testimony before the Eastland Committee. It was too great a deed over too small a fact.

Herbert Norman was making a public demonstration over something enormous, something that really needs looking into. What it is, the public does not know. It could have been many things, one of them, that the ghosts of his "student days" were pressing him against a wall and threatening him in a manner used only by gangsters and Communists.

But why speculate? Why not ask how it happened that Americans and Canadians who were suspected of playing into Soviet Russia's hands in the Far East between 1945 and 1951, were, in 1956, in high posts in the Middle East, which at the moment, Soviet Russia was subjecting to its imperial will? The investigation of that curiosity ought not to stop.

More About Medicine and the Press

Today there is a National Association of Science Writers, admission to which is granted a popular writer only after careful investigation and study of the applicant's qualifications. The fact that such an association exists has inevitably raised the standards of science reporting and has, moreover, gone far to fortify the respect of physicians generally for those who record the advances in science and medicine for the public.

A single example will show why this is so. For years—centuries, in fact—the physicians have been extremely sensitive on the matter of the introduction of new remedies, new procedures and new treatments into the public domain. He is by nature skeptical, as he has been trained to be. And this ingrained skepticism, more often than not, is heavily weighted in favor of the patient's welfare. For if a remedy, untried and not fully understood, is presented indiscriminately to the public, the chances are that it will fail or that it will not clearly accomplish what the public has been led to expect of it. The result would be sheer exploitation of human misery. The hopes of the sick would have been aroused in vain.

The conscientious science reporter of today, however, has been trained to recognize that the phrase "Premininary Report," on a medical paper means that complete appraisal of the subject thus denoted has not yet been possible. No scientific investigator would object to a newspaperman's reporting of such an investigation if the public were told that the investigation was still in a preliminary stage and that information about the problem was still incomplete. It is when the press announces that a new "cure" has been found, when the fact is that only preliminary studies and testing have been carried out, that physicians become suspicious and resentful of the press—and justifiably so.

"There remains a domain from which no physician wishes to be forced and I do not believe that any degree of either duress or persuasion will cause him to alter his stand in this respect. I refer to the relationship between the physician and his patient. This is a problem which many newspapermen seem unable to understand. Very often a newspaperman will communicate with a physician and ask for details about the treatment and condition of a private patient. Yet the same newspapermen would not dream of asking a clergyman to give him the details of a private conference between the pastor and one of his communicants. Nor would a newspaperman venture to question an attorney as to the nature of a private conversation between attorney and client. Actually, all three instances are in the category known as 'privileged communications.' Clergymen, lawyer, physician—none is expected to divulge to the public what he has learned from private contact with his communicant, client, or patient and in some cases he is enjoined by legal statutes from doing so."

Of course, if the patient authorizes the physician to release such information to the press, the physician is free to do so. More often than not, permission is given.. If it is not, members of the press should realize that the patient's afflictions are his own concern, that he is not obliged to tell anyone about them, and that the physician in charge must wait until his patient gives permission.

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington, (NEA) — When Congress comes back to town April 29, one of its myriad tasks will be to decide if, when and how it will consider President Eisenhower's repeated requests to make the United States a member of the proposed international Organization for Trade Cooperation (OTC).

The powerful House Ways and Means Committee under Chairman Jere Cooper (D.-Tenn.) failed to decide this before the Easter recess began. One reason is that over a thousand of the 7,000 bills introduced in the House this year deal with taxation and related matters. Cooper's committee has been unable to work out a priority list and schedule hearings.

OTC is intended to be a secretariat, research organization and forum where international trade agreements can be worked out.

Thirty-five of the principal trading countries, having over 80 per cent of the free world's trade, now carry on these negotiations through a General Agreement on Tariff and Trade (GATT). OTC is intended to regularize GATT.

CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS hope they can handle the OTC issue this year without the extensive hearings which they held last year after the Randall Commission made its recommendations for an American international trade policy.

What the Ways and Means Committee would like would be short hearings which would give government witnesses a chance to explain new amendments. They have been written into the draft legislation to make it more palatable than it was last year.

Principally, these amendments call for a U. S. businessman—not a State Department type—to be top American representative in OTC with the rank of ambassador. He would be given a special advisory committee from labor, agriculture, business and other special interest groups.

OTC failed to get by the House last year. Opposition to it is building up again from higher tariff advocates. And there is no special enthusiasm for it in Congress, for several reasons.

ONE IS THE GENERAL attitude and apathy of this session. Primary interest is in cutting the budget. There is no desire to do anything bold or constructive or different or new. And there is an apparent feeling that since the U. S. got along without an OTC before, it won't make any difference if there isn't one now.

A second reason is that there is some doubt as to what effects the creation of the new European Common Market will have on America's foreign trade and competition with Europe. The safe rule in politics is: when in doubt do nothing.

This is not a U. S. national election year, so the political factor in an OTC vote may not be so important. The political impact of a tariff vote isn't as important as it used to be, anyway.

POLLS ALL INDICATE that a majority of the voters—the consumers—are now in favor of lower tariffs and freer trade. But since the end of World War 2 it would be hard to find a congressional candidate who had been elected or defeated because of the stand he took on the trade agreements program.

What is important is the attitude of local businessmen who make the principal contributions to a congressional candidate's campaign funds. If these hometown manufacturers have even a faint suspicion that they are in competition with imports under low tariffs, that will decide how the congressman votes on all questions relating to the tariff.

If Congress takes no action on the OTC issue this year, the question is apt to be brought up again next year, along with a seventh renewal of the trade agreements act. And next year is a congressional election year.

What happens if the trade agreements act is not renewed and if the U. S. does not join OTC is open to argument. Trade agreements already negotiated would continue in effect until repealed by a six-months' notice. No new agreements could be made under the GATT procedure.

This might mean that, eventually, the 65,000 U. S. tariff rates now agreed to with 34 other countries would be returned to Congress for further determination.

If that happens, as one expert sees it, "the Capitol corridors will run with blood of congressmen caught in the jam of rolling logs."

Jordan Seen Pointing Need For Propaganda by U.S.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Apr. 25 — The struggle inside Jordan vividly illustrates the dilemma in the Middle East that confronts the United States and the other Western powers.

The Communists are conspicuously active—the young King admits it in a published interview with the representatives of the American press. The plain effort of the Soviet conspiracy is to overthrow the existing regime in Jordan and line it up with Nasser of Egypt and the pro-Communist clique that has taken possession of Syria.

Question for United States

Shall the United States look on indifferently? Leaflets condemning the Western nations, including the United States, are being distributed in the streets by the Communists. Student groups which have been infiltrated by Communist agents are being incited to make riotous demonstrations. Shall there be nothing done to counteract this, and shall the Western powers let it all go by default and see the whole Middle Eastern situation grow more and more dangerous as armed conflicts ensue?

These questions go to the heart of the problem posed by the critics who have urged that America abandon her economic-aid programs and curtail or abolish the United States Information Agency. Behind this drive is the belief that it will save money and that the budget can be thus trimmed and taxes soon reduced.

Danger of Conflict

But the danger is that the budget may have to be increased if armed conflict breaks out. Then the outpourings of dollars may be many times more than any pittance now spent in counteracting Communist activity in the Middle East.

The Moscow propagandists are busy and energetic. They think the Eisenhower Doctrine is too tempting for the Arab countries and that since Lebanon, Iraq, Iran and Saudi Arabia are friendly toward the doctrine, the other countries may likewise come within its helpful orbit and ties to the West will be strengthened.

And so the battle on the propaganda front goes. Big stakes are involved. Out of little wars grow big wars. The peace of the Middle East is at best hard to manage. Referring to that area, Secretary of State Dulles in his speech in New York this week said: "Wherever such situations occur, they are always worsened by Soviet intrigue. The Kremlin likes troubled waters in which to fish."

Moscow's Billions

Unfortunately the Moscow regime has billions available for such intrigue and for propaganda of all kinds, including hundreds of "cultural missions," but in America any effective defense with propaganda or countertactics is waved aside by too many people as "boondoggling."

Perhaps the most misunderstood feature of the work of the United States Information Agency is the jazz-band tours that it has recently sponsored. A young American business man who was in Southeast Asia at the time of one of these jazz-band visits writes to this correspondent:

"The Benny Goodman tour proved that jazz is the folk music of America. It has a way of cutting through the boundaries of language and culture that nothing else possesses. Additionally, it enables Americans to get through to the average citizen of each country more quickly than any diplomatic procedure.

The Student Problem

"For example, in Rangoon the university is a problem for the United States. The students are prime targets for all propaganda, for they are the future rulers of Burma. The Goodman band played two concerts indoors and held an outdoor seminar and jam session under the trees. Students flocked to hear the band. And the entire student attitude in Rangoon became more friendly toward the United States as a result.

"In Thailand, the King had Goodman to the palace four times so that he could play with the band. This was a tremendous asset to our people there—and they capitalized on the situation. My point is that we must fight our competition in these countries by all possible strategies, and the United States Information Agency enables us to cash in on our opportunities."

These are new problems, strange problems to the average American, who ,feeling secure in a world of his own with all the comforts of a peaceful climate, little realizes that the "cold war" is going on every hour of the day in the smaller countries of Asia and Africa where the United States at the moment is determined that international communism shall not get a firm foothold—and this costs money.

Answer Remains for Future

Policy of Patience Major Factor in Measuring Ike

BY JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

Washington, April 25 (AP)—One of the frequently asked questions in Washington is: "What do you think President Eisenhower's place in history will be?"

His rating among the Presidents will probably be determined more by what he manages to achieve in foreign policy than by anything in sight for him to do at home.

Some of his critics get impatient because he does not take a tougher, or harsher, line with the Russians and because he insists on exhausting every reasonable means of dealing with Egyptian President Nasser.

But it is right here—in his policy of patience—that history may make the final determination on whether he was truly wise.

When he took office Asia was on fire. The fire is still there but the flame has died down. It can hardly be said his policy of restraint had nothing to do with that.

When the blaze shifted to the Middle East, he seemed to have a choice: Crack down on Nasser or try to sweat it out. He might, by being rough, have won the skirmish with Nasser. But it might have antagonized the Arab world and opened it to Russia. The end result would have been a colossal defeat.

May Not Show for Years

By patience, by an attitude of understanding for the new nationalism of the Arabs and their immaturity as only recently independent people, he may yet save the Middle East from communism.

But all this is in an evolutionary state.

The true value of what he has done in the foreign field—good or bad—may not show up for years after he steps out of the presidency.

It is only now that President Truman's vigor, vision and decisiveness are beginning to be appreciated. The steps he took to hold Russia by containment are not only accepted by Eisenhower but are being pursued by him.

At home Eisenhower is trying to lead the Republican Party toward a more liberal course. He himself has not gone beyond the New Deal and "Fair Deal."

He has pretty much accepted both, adopted them, and is now trying to extend them.

Both deals are so much a part of American life—with broad benefits for so many people—that if Eisenhower had shown signs of wanting to undo them in 1952 and 1956 he probably wouldn't have been elected either time.

The philosophy of Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower can be boiled down to this: They believed the government has a responsibility for the welfare of the people.

Change Could Wreck Party

It is by no means certain that Eisenhower, by the time he leaves the White House, will have persuaded his party to pursue a steadily liberal course in its policies. There are plenty of grumblings about him now, and opposition to him, among the Republican conservatives.

If the conservatives capture control of the party after Eisenhower, and try to turn the clock back, they may well succeed in wrecking the party not only for years but forever.

That the voters themselves make a big distinction between Democrats and Republicans—unfavorable to Republicans—was shown in the elections of 1954 and 1956.

In 1954, with Republican Eisenhower in the presidency, the voters gave Democrats control of Congress. And in 1956, while re-electing Eisenhower overwhelmingly, they again chose the Democrats to run Congress.

Graham Answers Catholic Critic Of N.Y. Crusade

New York, April 25 (AP)—A priest's admonition that Roman Catholics should not attend evangelist Billy Graham's forthcoming New York crusade has led to a statement by Graham's office here that his sermons will be "the simple gospel message as found in the Bible."

The statement yesterday was authorized by Graham at his Montreat, N. C., home where he is preparing for the six-week New York crusade starting May 15.

Doors Open to All

The Graham office statement said the Evangelists' message here will be "the same message that he has always preached," and added:

"It is the message which has characterized Orthodox Christianity through the ages. The doors of the crusade will be open to all who wish to attend."

The new statement to Roman Catholics not to attend the crusade or listen to Graham's broadcasts was made by the Rev. John E. Kelly, director of the Bureau of Information of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, Washington, D. C.

Priest Cites Danger

The priest, writing in the current issue of Homiletic and Pastarol Review, said Graham is "a danger to the faith" for Catholics who listen to him.

Father Kelly said Graham's services are Protestant in nature, and Catholics are not permitted to participate in such services.

Graham's scheduled crusade here is being sponsored by the New York City Protestant Council, with about 1,500 individual congregations lending active support.

Many Roman Catholic periodicals, both in the United States and other countries, have said that Catholics should not attend Graham's meetings.

Over 2,300,000 Go To Fairs in State

Albany, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—More than 2,300,000 persons attended fairs in New York state last year, Agriculture Commissioner Daniel J. Carey reported today.

Attendance was about 300,000 higher than the 1955 turnout, Carey said.

The State Fair at Syracuse, run by the department, drew 369,864, compared with a turnout of 453,453 in 1955. County and town fairs accounted for 1,862,803 and youth fairs 76,570—for a total of 2,309,237.

Exclusive of the state fair, the expositions took in $2,722,736—only $475 more than the nonprofit organization expended.

Carey said fairs paid off notes totaling $400,000; spent more than $200,000 on permanent improvements, paid $355,000 for entertainment and put $165,000 in advertising.

Of the $550,000 laid out for premiums, they were reimbursed $467,000 by the state.

Search for Bodies

Montreal, April 25 (AP)—Divers searched the waters of Montreal harbor today for the bodies of a woman and three men lost when the tug John Pratt capsized and sank in a towing accident. Four men were rescued. The sunken vessel blocked the channel entrance to the inner harbor where many large passenger liners dock.

The tug was believed only slightly damaged, but harbor officials reported they could not say when she would be moved. The woman aboard the tug was the vessel's cook, Jeanne Lamy, 36, of Abitibi county, Que. Other victims were Capt. Zotique Bibeau, 62, Montreal; Jean-Marc Morin, 21, Sorel, Que., deckhand, and Laurent Laforest, 49, St. Ignace, Que., fireman.

Winchell Joins ABC

New York, April 25 (AP)—Walter Winchell says he will start a new television series next fall with the American Broadcasting Co. and is withdrawing a seven-million-dollar breach of contract suit against the network. In March 1955 the columnist-commentator announced he was leaving ABC because of disagreements over finances and protection against libel suits. He quit the network three months later. In September 1955 he filed suit, charging he had later learned he was protected by insurance from punitive damages and told ABC he was covered, but that the network declined to reinstate him.

Civil Service Exam

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that policemen are needed for duty with the Metropolitan Police Department in Washington, D. C. The entrance salary is $4,193 a year. To qualify, applicants must pass a written test and a rigid physical examination. They must be at least 21 years of age but must not have passed their 31st birthday. Further information and application forms may be obtained from Leo W. Darwak, examiner in charge, located at Central Post Office, Kingston.

Port Ewen Man Attends Electrolux Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Page of Port Ewen have returned after attending a sales achievement dinner sponsored by Electrolux Corp., at Patricia Murphy's in Yonkers.

The new automatic tank-type vacuum cleaner, featuring a dust bag which seals itself automatically when filled, was discussed at the dinner.

Mr. Page has been associated with the concern since 1937.

Hungarian Reds SentenceManWho Tortured Kadar

Budapest, April 25 (AP) — Hungary's Communist regime announced today Mihaly Farkas, notorious Stalin era purger who reportedly tortured Premier Janos Kadar when Kadar was out of favor, has been sentenced to 16 years in prison.

Farkas apparently was convicted at a secret trail. Farkas, minister of defense and three star general in the regime of former dictator Matyas Rokosi, was the first of the old Stalinist leaders to be sentenced in Hungary.

Arrested in October

Farkas was arrested last October, before the unsuccessful anti-Communist rebellion which brought Kadar back to power as the choice of the Russians. He remained in prison through the uprising.

Farkas, 53, a Jew, and his son Vladimir played leading roles in the prosecution in 1949-50 of other former Communist leaders whose names were cleared later. Both were accused of helping in the "investigation" of former foreign secretary Laszlo Rajk and Kadar, who had been interior minister before he also fell from favor during Stalin's feud with President Tito of Yugoslavia.

Rajk, executed in 1949 for "Titoism," was rehabilitated last June and given a hero's reburial in early October. The mass demonstration at the October ceremony helped set the stage for the anti-Communist uprising.

The elder Farkas was accused of having personally tortured Kadar while the present premier was imprisoned on Titoist charges.

Adjournment Is Granted 10 Days In Woerner Case

William Woerner, 62, of 40 Murray street who was arrested October 24, on a charge of possession of an unlicensed still, appeared in Federal Court on Tuesday for a hearing on the charge. Charles J. Saccoman appeared for Woerner and asked 10 days adjournment to make further motions pertaining to the charge. The motion was granted and the case referred for trial at the expiration of the 10 days. Bail was continued.

Last October Internal Revenue agents entered the premises and alleged they found a 25 gallon still in operation. They confiscated about 22 gallons of "white moonshine" whiskey, and 200 gallons of mash.

Woerner was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Isaac Platt in Poughkeespie and released under $1,000 bail.

Assisting the federal men in the raid was Lt. Robert F. Murphy, Detective Frank H. Sammons of the Kingston police department and County Investigator Arthur H. Brown.

Cancer Talk Planned

Dr. William S. Bush, president of the Ulster County Unit of the American Cancer Society, will speak at Onteora Central School next Tuesday, April 30, at 7:30 p. m. Announcement of this was made today by Mrs. Arthur Freeman, director of county field services of the local unit. A showing of the recently released film "Horizons of Hope," also will be featured.

Reports Entry Attempt

Vincent Eckert, commander of Joyce-Schirick Post 1286, Veterans of Foreign Wars, reported to police at 7:14 p. m. Wednesday that someone had attempted to enter the Post Home, 552 Delaware avenue, "some time during the night." He reported the front door had been tampered with but entry was not gained.

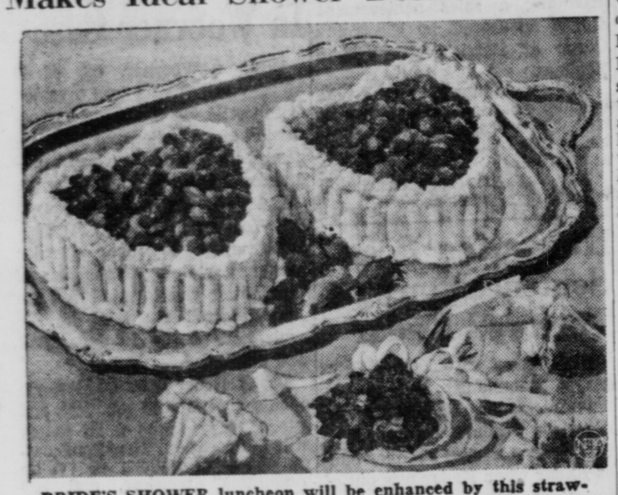
AMERICAN MENU

Strawberry Sweetheart Cake Makes Ideal Shower Dessert



BRIDE'S SHOWER luncheon will be enhanced by this strawberry sweetheart cake that also would fit on reception menu.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

This strawberry sweetheart cake makes a lovely dessert for a bride's shower luncheon. When the recipe is doubled and served as "twin cakes," the cost is approximately $3.50 for 25 guests. The cake is so beautiful and festive it also can be used for a wedding reception menu.

Strawberry Sweetheart Cake

Mix 1 package white cake mix according to package directions, adding ¾ teaspoon pure vanilla extract along with the liquid ingredients. Bake according to directions on package in two well-greased, waxed, paper-lined, heart-shaped layer cake pans, 1 inch deep. Cool on wire rack.

Meanwhile, soften 1 teaspoon unflavored gelatin in 1 tablespoon cold water. Place over hot water to dissolve. Fold gelatin into 1 cup heavy cream, whipped, along with 1½ tablespoons sugar and ½ teaspoon pure vanilla extract.

Spread a thin layer of whipped cream and then 1 cup sliced fresh strawberries between layers. Top cake with another layer of whipped cream. Fill in center of heart with 1½ cups sliced, fresh strawberries, leaving a 1-inch rim around outside edge of cake. Pour strawberry glaze over berries. Decorate top and sides of cake with remaining whipped cream put through a cake decorator's tube. For twin cakes, double the recipe. Garnish with additional strawberries and sweetheart roses, if desired.

This cake can be made up the day before and placed in refrigerator until serving time.

Strawberry Glaze

One and one-half teaspoons cornstarch, ¼ cup water, ¼ cup strawberry puree (½ cup sliced fresh strawberries pressed through a fine sieve, ¼ cup sugar).

Blend cornstarch with water until smooth. Add remaining ingredients and cook until clear and thickened, stirring constantly. Cool.

Also for shower luncheon, here's a wedding bell salad.

Molded Wedding Bell Salad

Soften 3 envelopes unflavored gelatin in ¾ cup cold water. Add 3 1/3 cups hot water, ¼ teaspoon salt and 1 cup sugar and stir until sugar and gelatin are dissolved.

Blend in 1 cup fresh lime juice and ½ teaspoon pure vanilla extract and a few drops green vegetable coloring. Chill until the mixture is about as thick as fresh egg whites. Fold in 3 cups green seedless grapes. Turn into a 2-quart wedding bell mold. Chill until firm and ready to serve.

Unmold onto a serving plate. Garnish with salad greens and additional seedless grapes. Serve with mayonnaise or fruit salad dressing.

Note: Doubled to serve 25 guests, cost will be approximately $2:50.

Ave Vetoes Bill Giving Man Right To Sue for Land

Governor Harriman has vetoed the bill which would have allowed Matthias A. Murray of Catskill to sue the state in the Court of Claims for compensation for land taken in connection with the improvement of highways 9W and 23A.

The bill had received wide publicity at the time it was sponsored by Assemblyman Wilson C. Van Duzer of Middletown. At that time it was said the Murray property had been cut in two by the thruway and it left the Murray home on one side of the route and an important outhouse on the opposite side with no way to make connection.

Murray later said this was incorrect. His property was not on the thruway, he had no outhouse and the property in question was in Catskill where modern facilities were provided. The state took a 35 foot square piece of his property to provide better visibility at the intersection of 9W and 32A. Assemblyman Van Duzer said he had been "merely quoting a lawyer" when he told the outhouse story.

The thermostat, a household heat regulating device, was perfected in 1883 by Al Butz, a Minneapolis inventor. He got his idea from a Scotch chemist of a half-century before.

Flurry Denies Charge

Washington, April 25 (AP) — Horace L. Flurry has denounced as "false" a charge that he favored a "more limited" grand jury investigation of oil price boosts. Flurry has quit his post as a lawyer with the Justice Department's antitrust division, alleging that his superiors impeded the grand jury probe which he was conducting. Yesterday, Asst. Atty. Gen. Victor R. Hansen, head of the antitrust division, accepted Flurry's resignation. Hansen said Flurry was removed from the case some time ago because he refused to cooperate with two superiors, W. Wallace Kirkpatrick, No. 3 man in the division, and Worth Rowley, chief of its trial section.

Student Is Found Dead in Bed At High Woods

A 25-year-old air force veteran was found dead Tuesday morning in the summer home of a friend in High Woods, town of Saugerties, according to Coroner Michael A. Galietta.

Arthur Grant of 761-56th street, Brooklyn was found in bed shortly after 8 a. m. when he failed to respond to calls for breakfast. He had been staying at the home of William McKenna.

The cause of death could not be immediately determined, Coroner Galietta said an specimens of vital organs were sent to Albany for special tests.

According to Coroner Galietta there were no marks on the body although the tongue was swollen and the face slightly flushed. The McKenna family told the coroner that they had heard Grant cough about 7:30 a. m. indicating that he was alive at that time.

Grant was a student at St. John's University, Brooklyn. From preliminary examinations made, Coroner Galietta said Grant appeared to be in apparent good health at the time of his death.

The body was sent to Murray Funeral Home, Philadelphia, Pa., for burial at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Montgomery county, Pa.

Memoriam

In memory of my mother, Martha H. McCaffrey, who passed away one year ago April 25.

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land,
And left me dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there
And I—Oh I, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of her still as the same, I say;
She is not dead,—she is just away!

With love and prayers
Her Daughter

Dry Run

Denver, Colo. (AP)—The Denver Waitress and Bartender School trains only teetotalers. "Absolutely no alcohol is permitted on the premises," says Donald Howe, the man in charge. "Smoking is forbidden, too." "Clubs and restaurants desire personnel who are able to mix any of hundreds of fashionable concoctions quickly, adroitly and without waste," Howe explains. "We teach our classes by using bottles containing water." The students spend the first three of about 50 class periods learning all of the trade's equipment. "Only then are they allowed to attempt their first Manhattan," Howe says.

Mental Health Forum Set Tonight at Jewish Center

The third annual Mental Forum sponsored by the Jewish Community Center will be held tonight at 8:30 o'clock at the Center, 265 Wall street.

Tonight's subject will be "Where Do We Go From Here," with regard to Kingston's Mental Health Clinic.

Panelists scheduled to take part in the discussions include:

Attorney Richard Russell of Poughkeepsie, who attended Georgetown University in Washington, D. C., and who graduated from Fordham Law School in 1930.

Royce McWhater, pyschiatric social worker at the Dutchess County Mental Health Clinic.

Dr. Joseph P. Reidy, currently medical director of the Astor Home for Children in Rhinebeck.

Dr. Herbert Schwartz, chairman of the Kingston Jewish Community 1957 Forum.

"It is extremely important for all Americans to become aware of the fact that Mental Health is at least just as important as, and perhaps more important then physical health," a spokesman representing the forum said today in welcoming the public to attend tonight's panel discussion.

ROYCE McWHATER

He added "mental illness can be checked, just as physical illness is checked. All we need is an awareness of the importance of Mental Health, a desire to understand its significance and an enthusiasm in doing something about it now."

Frederick Aalto Receives High Exploring Award

Frederick Aalto, explorer of Boy Scout Troop 63, Ashokan, received the Silver Award, the highest rank in Explorer Scouting, at the recent monthly meeting of the Rip Van Winkle Council, Boy Scouts of America, it was announced today.

The Silver Award in Exploring is comparable to the Eagle Award in Boy Scouting.

Cite Role of Adults

Kingston District Commissioner Edward Safford and Jerry Blair, Scout executive of the council made the presentation. During the presentation Mr. Blair pointed out the part played by Scoutmaster Alva Buley Jr. and Explorer Advisor Robert Adsit in the boy's attainment of the award.

The new Silver Award recipient spoke of his wide experiences during the achievement of this award.

President Johan A. Aalto announced the notice of probate on the Augusta V. D. Hutton will, bequeathing $1,000 to Rip Van Winkle Council. President Aalto, in reporting on trust fund asked for approval of finance committee's recommendation that trust fund development committee be a maximum and minimum 9-3 membership, with two year terms and staggered expiration.

Walter Balk, finance campaign chairman reported the campaign within $700 of December 31, 1956 final amount. Two districts who have not completed their coverage should fill the gap, he said. These districts are Rondout and Kingston (outside Community Chest area). He commended the spirit of the campaign and reminded everyone of the May 6 finance critique meeting, where the experiences of this year can help build a better campaign.

Training Progress

Dr. Robert Ploss reported fine progress in training courses in all districts and in the Pow-Wow preparations. The adult cub leader training, 2 p. m., May 11 at the Redeemer Lutheran Church looks like a top experience, he said. The Baden-Powell Jr. Leader Training Conference at Forsyth Park, 1 p. m., is progressing very well, he reported. Over 18 key training Scouters are signed for the train-the-trainer's conference at Rome, N. Y., April 26-27-28.

Frank Bourke, camp chairman, reported 18 Troops and three Posts are now signed for Camp Tri-Mount. Some space is left and units were urged to reserve now. Commissioner Safford reporting for Council Commissioner Sherwood Lasher, reported Commissioner recruiting with 10 new men already this year is booming. Many districts are moving into three section roundtables.

Plans on the Council Jamboree, June 1, 2 are being set. Walter Tremper reported on preparations for the annual dinner May 28 at Fair Street Reformed Church and urged that reservations be made quickly as seating is limited.

Harry Allen, western district, reported at least one bus load will go to Giant-Cincinnati ball game, May 4. Commissioner Safford, for Kingston, expects three buses other districts also reported groups going.

Reports Progress

Mr. Blair reported progress on all but one of the 10 tests of successful Scouting. The deficiency was in the increase of the number of units. New troops at Plattekill (Troop 79) and at Haines Falls plus two new Packs will eliminate the one exception.

Total boy membership is now 2,894, it was reported. Jamboree plans moving ahead with over 96 Scouts and Explorers registered for Valley Forge also reported four Explorers slated for attendance at the Jubilee Jamboree in England.

Considered Important

Washington, (AP)—The military chaplain holds a place of honor on the denominational rosters of the clergy, although it has not always been the case, the annual meeting of the General Commission of Chaplains and Armed Service Personnel was told recently. Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert, former general secretary of the National Council of Churches and U. S. Secretary of the World Council of Churches, said it was not until 1938 that churches began to recognize the chaplain's importance.

Kiwanis Defers Action; to Hear School Opposition

The Kingston Kiwanis Club voted at its noon luncheon meeting at the Governor Clinton Hotel today to withhold an endorsement of the proposed junior high school at Dietz Stadium "until the opposition has the opportunity to present its case before the club."

J. Ellis Briggs, chairman of the Public and Business Affairs committee of Kiwanis, introduced a resolution that the club vote in favor of the proposed school.

Richard Rider, a member of Kiwanis and also the Kingston Civic Association, which has gone on record as opposing the bond issue, moved that any action be deferred until opponents of the school are heard by Kiwanis Club members. Mr. Rider will be in charge of the speaking program for the next meeting of the club scheduled May 2.

Mr. Rider noted that representatives of the Board of Education presented their endorsement of the school building program at last week's meeting.

Jordan Under

Ex-Premier Nabulsi was a member of the Khalidi cabinet. He is not in the new government.

Faced Troubles

Hussein said that when he was finally able to put together the cabinet under Khalidi "it was faced after only a few days with a lot of troubles."

"I call you at a moment when certain people are playing with your faith and future—people who have sold themselves to the outside," he declared.

"It is a sorry thing that these few people who claim they are representing the people are in a minority."

Gives Reasons

As to the Nabulsi government he dismissed more than two weeks ago, Hussein said:

"You all know the contradictions into which the Nabulsi government fell. The ministers themselves complained, government officials as well, and it was necessary to let them go after they removed official civil servants and brought in Communists to spread their principles. . . ."

Body of Man Is Found Today in Railroad Tunnel

The body of an unidentified man believed to be 50 years old or "in his fifties," was found this morning by a railroad man in a tunnel on the city side of the railroad bridge in Wilbur.

A number believed to be his social security identification is being checked Coroner Francis J. McCardle said, and authorities expected to obtain further information later today.

Abrasions on the back and a laceration at the back of the skull indicated that he might have come in contact with, or fallen from a moving train, the coroner said.

The body was found between east and west-bound tracks at the south end of the tunnel by George Caddy, of 452 Hasbrouck avenue, and Donald Madison, of Colonial Gardens, of the signal maintenance division of the New York Central railroad. Copeland E. Gates, of the trainmaster's office, also investigated at the scene.

Police were notified shortly before 10 a. m., that the man had been found in the tunnel and detectives Clarence Brophy and Frank Sammons and Officer George Dougherty with Special Officer George Carpouzis were dispatched to investigate.

under constant attack since it took over at King Hussein's request eight days ago.

The king yesterday blamed his country's troubles on "International communism and its followers" and said the threat would be overcome he called it a "general move to destroy all elements that can stand in the way of the new imperialism that wants to come into the Arab world."

As for whether Jordan actually had made a request for American aid, Hagerty told a news conference late yesterday: "Not to my knowledge."

Ike Calls . . .

ed" by the administration, and added:

"I suppose Mr. Beck has a right to determine whom he wants to vote for as an American citizen."

Mitchell also indicated the administration would not welcome Beck's support again if Eisenhower were running for office at this time.

The cabinet officer did so in noting that a few weeks ago the administration refused to pick Beck to serve as a representative at an International Labor Organization (ILO) conference in Europe. Beck had been recommended, before the Senate inquiry into his activities, by AFL-CIO President George Meany. The AFL-CIO executive council has since suspended Beck.

As for the general picture, Mitchell said:

"We are trying to help the American labor movement clean house in those areas where it needs to clean house."

But the cabinet officer also called for a calm approach to the problem.

"We should not rush headlong, impelled by the hysteria of the moment, to secure punitive legislation aimed at undermining or weakening the general body of labor."

Mitchell urged elimination of "specific abuses of power."

art, music, etc. to students in grades 7-9 such students are classified as "elementary" and the state pays the school district only $330 per child. Mr. O'Reilly pointed out that this would represent a loss of $82.50 on each child and applying this figure to the 900 students currently enrolled in the Michael and Washington Schools the total loss in state aid would be $74,000.

It was pointed out at the Lion's Club meeting that the additional money paid by the state to the local school district for junior and senior high school students was in partial recognition of the additional cost of building the necessary facilities for furnishing the state required program.

PLAN FOURTH DEGREE BREAKFAST—Kingston Assembly 275, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus will hold its annual corporate Communion and breakfast Sunday, May 5. Members will receive Communion at the 8 a. m. Mass at Immaculate Conception Church. The committee on arrangements includes seated (l-r) Faithful Pilot Robert Kershaw; Faithful Navigator Russell Brott, and Grand Knight Edward Ahl; standing, Louis Surhoff, Robert Campbell, and Past Faithful Navigator Bernard F. O'Neil. John J. Tancredi, general chairman, was not present for the photo. (Anner photo).

4-Lane Creek Span

30 to 50 candidates for the office of director. From this list each member may nominate or vote for seven. The 14 receiving the largest number of nominating votes will be placed on an election ballot. Members will then have the opportunity, the same as now provided, to vote for seven of the 14 nominees on the second or election ballot.

Another by-law change will give sustaining membership, subscribed for at $250 each, four votes, the same as any member subscribing for four or more regular memberships at $25 each. The voting power of any individual, firm, corporation or association is still limited to a maximum of four votes regardless of the number of regular or sustaining memberships subscribed for.

Reports Distributed

Mimeographed copies of an annual report summary, the 1957-58 budget and a list of all committees for 1957-58 were distributed. Anyone interested in obtaining copies of any one or all three may obtain them at the Chamber of Commerce office in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

President Burns thanked the more than 200 members of committees who served the Chamber of Commerce during the past year. New committees took office at the meeting last night. In discussing the budget of $17,375 for 1957-58 he called attention to the fact that this was a minimum budget. "It covers operating costs but does not leave much for advertising and promotional activities. More support would be welcomed and could be used to advantage," Burns said.

Burns also stated that the fiscal year starts on May 1 when renewal statements for 1957-58 memberships would be mailed. A one-day campaign for new members will also be conducted on April 30 under the chairmanship of George J. Silkworth.

In speaking about the Route 209 extension which will enable through traffic to travel directly from the village of Hurley to Route 28, Route 9-W and the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge, Rauer said that this stretch of entirely new highway is now on the state map but survey work to determine a definite alignment has not been started.

Roads Problem Costly

Roland Green said that while the county has 460 miles of roads many, perhaps the majority, of which are inadequate to handle present day traffic volume and truck weight loads. "When designed years ago such heavy traffic was not anticipated. The needed improvements represent a serious economic problem," Green stated. He called attention to the major improvements now underway on Lucas avenue extension and the high costs of rights of way."

Deputy Chief Murphy said that lack of adequate off-street parking facilities makes it impossible to put needed traffic and street parking regulations in effect to enable the maximum freedom of traffic flow on our city streets in those areas. He also said that the shortage of police officers trained in traffic control makes proper enforcement difficult or impossible.

George Svirsky, the fourth panel member, discussed the need for surplus parking to attract more customers and described plans for a multi-story parking garage in the Uptown business area. Proposed details of the plan are now in the hands of a special sub-committee composed of lawyers and accountants. "A prospectus of the project and pledge forms for financial support should be available soon," Svirsky said.

Veto Seen . . .

an "excuse" for calling the GOP-controlled Legislature into special session.

Hughes also has maintained that the Legislature, if summoned into session by the governor, probably would re-enact the same bills.

The unemployment insurance bill, besides boosting the weekly benefit to workers, would raise the payroll tax on seasonal employers, beyond that levied on industries that maintain more stable employment.

Called Costly

Spokesmen for the apparel industry and the garment workers union maintained at the afternoon-long hearing in the Senate chamber that this would prove so costly that it would drive the industry out of the state—to nearby states with lower tax rates.

Labor unions attacked a section of the compensation bill that would broaden the circumstances under which courts may upset awards of the workmen's compensation benefits.

Opponents of both measures contend that drawbacks in the bills outweighed the proposed benefits to workers. They demanded new legislation separating the worker benefits from the other features.

Most of the arguments employed for and against the bill had been aired at public hearings before the measures were passed, and in Senate and Assembly debate.

Observers at yesterday's hearing generally felt that Harriman would veto the bills. There appeared to be little political logic in calling a hearing, at which political friends were bound to demand veto, and then sign the measures.

Leaders Speak

Harriman's counsel, Daniel Gutman, who presided at the hearing, questioned various labor leaders as to the attitude of rank-and-file union members.

"Would your members," he asked, "be willing to sacrifice the benefits of the bills because of the provisions to which you object?"

He was assured by all he asked that they would be willing.

The question seemed to reflect possible concern on the part of Harriman that a veto might be misunderstood by the average worker.

The governor sat at Gutman's side through most of the hearing but did not participate actively in the proceedings.

Harriman himself had raised the possibility of a special session, but on another subject.

Moments after the Legislature adjourned on March 30, he said he would consider recalling the lawmakers for action on a bill that would block a multi-million-dollar rate increase sought by the New York Telephone Co. The bill was killed in Senate committee, after passing the Assembly.

The governor has said nothing further on the subject.

Two Are Feared

sank and police said it carried the other man down with it.

The plane, equipped with pontoons, struck the Thruway bridge about one-third of the way out from Nyack. Police said one person reported that the single engine of the plane burst into flames just before it hit the bridge structure.

Thruway police said they had no explanation as to why the plane was flying so low.

Votes Record Budget

New York, April 25 (AP)—The Board of Home Missions of the Congregational Christian Church has voted the largest budget in its history—$2,932,929, it was announced today. The board's executive committee approved the new budget for the year beginning June 1 at a two-day session here. The Rev. Dr. Truman B. Douglass, head of the board, noted that the yearly home mission budget, devoted to starting new churches in this country and aiding needy ones, has tripled over the past 14 years.

Fit the Crime

Oklahoma City, (AP) — Traffic Judge James Demopolos sentenced an 18-year-old chronic traffic law violator to spend two hours a night for the next 30 days in the emergency room of Mercy Hospital. James Nix was brought before him with a record of nine traffic accidents and 40 driving citations. The judge also told the youth to give a pint of his blood to the Red Cross. "That will be symbolic of the blood that could have been spilled on the highway," he said.

Reds Cut Prices

Moscow, April 25 (AP)—The Soviet government today ordered price cuts ranging from 10 to 32 per cent on a few widely assorted consumer items. It was the first price reduction in the Soviet Union since last spring. Seven categories of products were affected. Prices on alarm clocks were cut 20 to 32 per cent. Record players were reduced 30 per cent, vacuum cleaners 20 per cent, lady's gold wrist watches, perfume and some brands of cereals 15 per cent, and some canned goods 10 per cent.

Cautious Officers Shoot 'Sick Skunk'

Policemen frequently receive strange and different complaints in their tour of duty, but a call at 9:22 a. m. today was one which could not be described as exactly aromatic.

The report said there was "a sick skunk" in the rear of 128 Fair street.

Officers George Dougherty and George Carpouzis devoted to duty but somewhat cautious proceeded to the scene.

Officer Dougherty shot the oderized animal without any untoward incident.

Held as Drunk Driver

Alexander O'Mundsen, 46, of 253 Williams street, West Hempstead, was arrested at 12:35 p. m. Wednesday by State Troopers Conway and Posa of the Rhinebeck station on a charge of drunken driving. The car, being operated east on Route 199 at Rock City, left the road on a curve, struck road signs and damaged a mail box on the south side of the road. The operator was uninjured. A blood test was taken and O'Mundsen was remanded to the Dutchess County Jail for a hearing later by Justice Coon of the town of Milan.

FRESH CAUGHT HUDSON RIVER SHAD

Policeman Is Held In Slaying of Wife, Attorney

New York, April 25 (AP) — A much-cited policeman is being held on charges of homicide and felonious assault in the shooting of his estranged wife and the slaying of her lawyer in the latter's downtown Manhattan office.

The attorney, Jacob A. Smith, 36, died of bullet wounds in the head and chest.

The wife, Mrs. Beryl Pegram, 30, shot twice in the head, is in critical condition at a hospital.

Police gave this account:

The patrolman, Edward P. Pegram, 42, met his wife yesterday in Smith's office to talk over property settlement, alimony matters, and future custody of the couple's three-year-old son, John.

The wife demanded higher alimony payments and sought custody of the boy, who was awarded to the father when the Pegrams separated in 1955.

"I want more money or I'll send you to jail," the wife said.

"Nobody's going to send me to jail," shouted Pegram.

The patrolman took out a .32 caliber revolver and fired. Lisle C. Carter Jr., a member of the law firm of Watson, Carter & Smith, wrested the gun from Pegram, who offered no resistance.

Pegram, weeping, told police: "I had to do it. Nobody's going to take my child. I'm sorry."

The patrolman, 15 years on the force, resided with his son and mother in (197-32 Nashville avenue) Jamaica, Queens. He is the holder of six citations for outstanding police work.

Authorities said Pegram recently paid $400 in back alimony to his wife by obtaining a loan, and yesterday signed over to her his equity in a Westchester county property they owned jointly.

Favorite figureheads on American sailing ships included Abraham Lincoln, Benjamin Franklin and, of all people, Davy Crockett who probably never saw a larger body of water than a river he could swim.

To Hire More People

Sidney, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—The Scintilla Division of Bendix Aviation Corp. reports that a five-million-dollar plant expansion is expected to increase its employment here by 20 per cent. George E. Steiner, division general manager, said yesterday the new workers were expected to be hired by 1961, when additions to the plant in this Delaware county community are completed. The plant now has 4,800 workers. Steiner said 400 to 500 workers would be hired gradually after September 1.

300 Signs Missing

Rochester, N. Y., April 25 (AP) —This city has a "no parking" problem. Harrison Young, city traffic engineer, reported yesterday that some 300 of the city's 500 "no parking" signs have been stolen from the streets in the past year. Why? No one seems to know. Another city official said each sign was worth about $10, so the "no parking" problem is about a $3,000 headache.

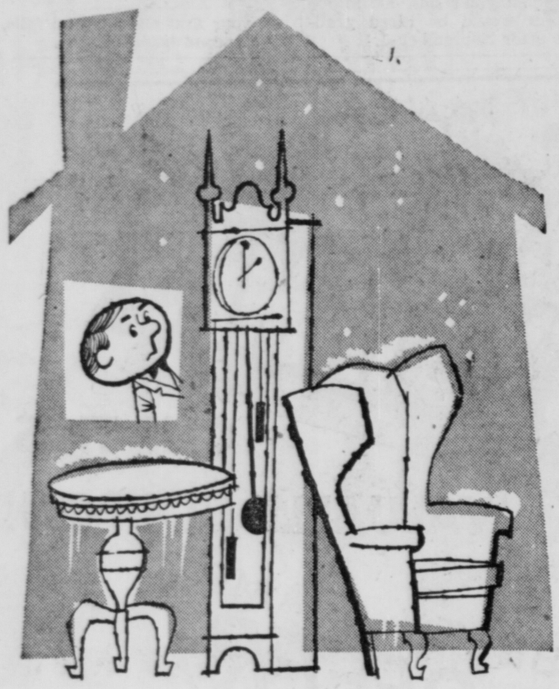
"OUT IN THE COLD?"



YOU MAY BE WITHOUT KNOWING IT!

Here's why. Building costs have been rising steadily, while your insurance level has stayed the same. That means that, if you have a major fire or other loss, the present insurance on your home and furnishings may only pay you enough to cover rebuilding the house! And that house is going to look awfully bare without furniture!

Check your insurance level now. Bringing it up-to-date won't necessarily cost you more. You can save a substantial per cent by insuring with The Central—one of America's strongest companies—that pays dividends to policyholders! To be really safe, and save, call

Sunday school worship service and instruction including the pastor's Bible class; 9:40 a. m., nursery form pre-school children; 9:45 a. m., morning worship. Sermon topic, "In the Name of Jesus." Guest speaker, Dr. Margaret Rottschaffer, medical mssionary to India. Junior Youth Fellowship at 4 p. m. both at the parsonage. Monday, 7:30 p. m., final meeting of Teacher Training Class at Marbletown Reformed Church. Members of the Ladies' Aid will attend the Classical Missionary meeting and luncheon on May 1 beginning at 10 a. m. in the Fair Street Reformed Church, Kingston.

Last Saturday, the Consistory of the Reformed Church installed a lighted bulletin board on the corner of the church lawn.

Last Sunday a group from the Youth Fellowship came and cared for the nursery. Fifteen pre-kindergarten children were present. Then a group from the Clove Reformed Church journeyed to the Marbletown church and reciprocated by caring for the nursery there, thus enabling each group to attend Easter services in his own church.

Fire Chief Raymond Williams has announced a fire drill for Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the firehall. The siren will be sounded.

There will be an Easter party in the basement of the Reformed Church Friday at 7:30 p. m. for the children of the Sunday school.

A large group gathered at the Marbletown School last Saturday morning for the first Easter egg hunt sponsored by the Marbletown Recreation Department. Prizes in the three to five age group were won by Janet Davis and Ralph Van Aiken. In the six to nine age group, prizes were won by Linda Stokes and John Markle.

Count Would Expose Play

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

See if you can figure out how South managed to go down three tricks at the four-spade contract. If you can't here is the sad story:

West opened the deuce of clubs. East cashed the ace and king and led the jack of hearts. South won with the king and laid down the ace of trumps. He then played low to dummy's queen, finessed for East's jack and played a fourth trump.

West had to make three discards and dropped the queen of clubs and two hearts.

South led the ten of diamonds and West made a brilliant play. He covered with the jack. This was allowed to hold and West promptly played the deuce.

South went into deep communion with himself and finally decided that West really had started with four diamonds. Hence South finessed dummy's nine and allowed East's singleton queen to make a trick. Now South had to lose both his low hearts and wound up down three tricks on a lay-down hand.

West had made a couple of brilliant plays but there was no real reason for South to have gone wrong. If he had analyzed the bidding he would have realized that West could not hold more than three diamonds.

West had bid one heart on a suit headed by queen-ten immediately over the double of his partner's one club. West also held but one spade. There was no real purpose to that heart bid with only a five-card suit. He wasn't going to keep North and South out of their spade suit, and with only a five-card suit he had no reason to suggest bidding a lot of hearts.

Hence West must have held six hearts. Adding three clubs and one spade would only leave three diamonds. West could not hold four diamonds and the suit would break.

Proposed Junior High Questions and Answers

This material has been prepared under authorization of the Board of Education of the City School District of the City of Kingston. Its purpose is to acquaint the voters of Kingston with pertinent information relative to the proposed junior high school and to answer any questions they may have concerning its need, cost, construction and location.

Question: What is the present bonded indebtedness of the Kingston School system?

Answer: In 1951 the George Washington School was completed at a cost of about $1,500,000. This cost was met by a 10 year bond issue. A year or so later another five year bond issue of about $500,000 was placed to pay for the building of the Kate Walton Field House and the new high school cafeteria. At present the yearly payments on these two bond issues amount to $135,000 on the George Washington School and $104,000 on the field house and cafeteria, a total of $239,000 on principal and interest.

Question: When will these payments on the two bond issues be paid in full?

Answer: The bond issue on the George Washington School will be completely paid by July 1, 1961 and the bond issue on the Kate Walton Field House will be completed on December 1, 1957.

Question: What will be the annual payment on the bond issue for the new Junior High School?

Answer: The annual payment on principal and interest at 3 per cent on the two and a half million dollar issue running for 20 years will be $166,500.

Question: Can we afford this new junior high school?

Answer: Yes. As you see from the answers to the preceding questions of past few days, we are now paying $239,000 a year on principal and interest of existing bond issues. These bond issues will be paid in full by 1961. The new bond issue for the junior high school will be $166,500. We can have the new junior high school for $62,500 less per year than we are paying now.

Mrs. Annie Eckert was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols Monday evening.

Wapiti, moose and elk are all members of the deer family.

Stresses Safety Factors

St. Louis, April 25 (AP)—Industry must pay more attention to safety standards and to such factors as fatigue and emotional disturbance in the future, Dr. H. H. Schrenk of Pittsburgh said last night. Schrenk was presented the Donald E. Cummings Memorial Award of the American Industrial Hygiene Assn. for outstanding contributions to the profession. He is research director of industrial hygiene and a senior fellow at Mellon Institute. He told the AIHA, part of the National Industrial Health Conference here, that there is a great need for research to keep abreast of the hazards which may accompany new industrial development.

Pardonable Error

San Diego, Calif. (AP)—A young miss at the waterfront was searching for a sailor friend who she thought was a crewman "aboard the Keafuver." It turned out she wanted the USS Estes.

Moose Lodge Will Install New Officers on Sunday

SHERWOOD E. DAVIS
Principal Speaker

J. L. SLIZEWSKI
Installing Officer

Kingston Lodge 970, Loyal Order of Moose will conduct an installation of officers ceremony Sunday, April 28 at 3 p. m. in the lodge rooms, 82 Prince street.

The following were chosen to head the order for the current term:

Alton L. Stewart, governor; Albert E. Eisele, junior governor; William Ballard, junior past governor; Theodore Benson, prelate; Alfred K. Steeger, treasurer; Harold Johston, trustee 3 years; Earl C. Hopkins, trustee 2 years.

Officers who served the lodge for the past year were: Alton L. Stewart, governor, Albert E. Eisele, junior governor; William Ballard, junior past governor; William Lawton, prelate; Raymond Tator, trustee; William Bates, trustee; Edward Cline, sergeant-at-arms; John Emmett, inside guard, and Albert Ochner, outer guard.

Installing officer, representing the Supreme Lodge, will be John L. Slizewski, past governor of Kingston Lodge.

Among the speakers will be Sherwood E. Davis, local attorney, who will deliver the principal address, and Pilgrim Anthony Erena, secretary of the local lodge.

Kingston Chapter Women of the Moose will serve as escorts at the ceremony.

Committees to serve with the board of officers during the year will be appointed by Governor Stewart at the first meeting to be held May 2. Appointments of sergeant-at-arms, inside guard and outer guard will also be made at this time.

All members and friends of the Moose fraternity are invited to attend the ceremony.

Justice Acquitted, Fined

Atlanta, April 25 (AP) — Chief Justice W. H. Duckworth of the Georgia Supreme Court has been acquitted of drunken driving charges but fined $50 as a result of a traffic accident. The 62-year-old jurist received the fine in city traffic court yesterday on a charge of failing to remain in a proper traffic lane. Duckworth's auto struck two other vehicles on Peachtree Road late Tuesday night. At the time of the accident he was booked on charges of driving under the influence of intoxicants, drunk on the street and failing to remain in the proper lane.

Hints Red Subs May Be Watching Missile Tests

Washington, April 25 (AP) — Sen. Bridges (R.-N. H.) said today Russian submarines may be prowling off Florida coasts in an attempt to watch U. S. missile experiments.

"It is no secret that we are experimenting with an ICBM (intercontinental ballistic missile) at Patrick Air Force Base, Fla.," Bridges said in a speech prepared for American Legion Commissions on National Security and Foreign Relations.

12 Were Reported

Bridges, who is a senior member of the Senate Armed Services and Appropriations Committees, said a recent report was "that there were about a dozen submarines lying off Cape Canaveral, Florida."

"They were not ours or our allies," Bridges said. "The story was not substantiated, but we do know that the Russians spare no effort to learn what we are doing."

"If the submarines are in this vicinity and if they are Russian, it may well be they are watching our progress on the first intercontinental ballistic missile," he said.

Confident of Alertness

"I am confident the Navy is pretty well alert to the submarine menace," he added. "One of its top jobs is to keep track of them and be ready to destroy them if the occasion arises."

Earlier this month, Adm. Jerauld Wright, commander in chief of the U. S. Atlantic fleet, said an increasing number of unidentified submarines have been contacted in the last three years. But he declined to detail "either the numbers or the areas" involved.

Wright said he was not alarmed about the situation, although he said the Navy is "very much interested" whenever Russian subs are spotted in the Atlantic.

Optimistic Talk Replaces Worries As Spring Perks Up Business World

New York, April 25 (AP)—The sap of confidence is rising in the business world with the spring. Optimistic talk today is replacing some of the caution and worries that featured the late winter months.

In some cases industrial leaders are reporting a revival of activity in April. In more, hopes are building up for an early end to the lull caused by inventory trimming and a new upsurge in the fall.

"The adjustment should be brief and moderate" is the theme song in many industries.

Peps Wall Street Bulls

This happy talk has pepped up the bulls in Wall Street. It is cheering stockholders of many companies at the annual meeting now nearing their peak season. It spreads through many of the first quarter earnings reports now pouring in.

Included in the chorus of cheer this week are officials of steel, oil, container, machinery, tools, food, copper and auto companies.

"A strong recovery trend during the final quarter" is seen for the steel industry by J. L. Mauthe, chairman of Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

A brisk upturn in the fall is expected by C. M. White, president of Republic Steel. R. L. Gray, Armco Steel president, predicts record output by the industry this year.

The always optimistic Eugene G. Grace, Bethlehem Steel chairman, holds forth on the subject today. And U. S. Steel's chairman, Roger M. Blough, will report on the outlook next Tuesday.

Bright for Oil

"A bright outlook" for the oil industry is seen by W. K. Whiteford, president of Gulf Oil. The Texas Co.'s chairman, A. C. Long, says domestic oil demand will rise by five per cent this year and over the long run there will be continued growth in foreign markets. Both firms report sharp increases in earnings so far this year, with the Suez Canal crisis and increased oil prices cited as causes.

The copper industry has been having its troubles. But Robert G. Page, Phelps Dodge president, thinks the trimming of inventories by users of the metal should be about over. Herman S. Steinkraus, chairman of Bridgeport Brass, looks for a gradual improvement with the sales curve turning upward as the year progresses.

Looks Good for Cars

Henry Ford II, president of Ford Motors, reports record sales so far this year. And Arthur O. Dietz, president of C.I.T. Financial, big financer of auto sales, looks for some six million new cars to be sold this year, about the same as last. While this would be below the 1955 record splurge, it still is an awful lot of cars.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, chairman of Continental Can, tells stockholders "the outlook for 1957 in the container industry is a strong one." And William T. Brady, president of Corn Products Refining, says "the economic factors that influence our business are favorable."

Kempton Dunn, president of American Brake Shoe & Foundry, predicts the high level of its shipments and earnings will continue at least through the rest of the first half of 1957.

Machine tool shipments continue to rise. National Machine Tool Builders Assn. officials think they may set a record peacetime high this year. The order backlogs amount to 5½ months of shipments and new orders are still coming in at a rate of 60 million dollars a month.

But the industry frets because this is well below last year's rate. It, too, hopes there will be an upsurge in the fall with a new spurt in business spending for expansion.

Briefly Told

Albany, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—The State Conservation Commissioner urges persons using New York's woodlands, and fishermen in particular, to guard against setting fires.

Commissioner Sharon J. Mauhs said yesterday there was a "serious early season threat" of fire in the wooded areas. He said an early snow runoff, little rain, hot sunny days and strong winds contributed to the threat.

The commissioner said 59 fires were reported last weekend in areas protected by the Conservation Department. He said most of the fires resulted from human carelessness while burning brush or debris.

Albany, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—A firecracker that exploded after it had been tossed from a speeding automobile injured a woman and girl slightly last night, police reported.

Mrs. Martha Burmaster, 41, suffered a laceration of the right ankle and Miss Donna Doganieri 15, suffered a burn on the left thigh. Both were treated at a hospital and discharged.

Police said the automobile sped away.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—Four-year-old Regina Elliott died in a hospital yesterday an hour after she was struck by an automobile.

Police said the girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott, dashed into the street in front of the car after she had decided not to go for an automobile ride with her father.

Binghamton, N. Y., April 25 (AP) — Richard Leonard, a 46-year-old mechanic from nearby Conklin, was crushed to death yesterday beneath the tread of a bulldozer.

State police said Leonard had been adjusting the clutch of the machine when it leaped forward. He was hurled under the tread.

The accident occurred at the Pasquale Construction Co. in Endwell, near here.

Lockport, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—A 63-year-old man, Francis Neelon, drowned yesterday when he fell into the State Barge Canal.

Lemuel R. Hurlburt, Niagara county coroner, issued a certificate of accidental death. The authorities said Neelon apparently slipped and fell into the canal while walking along the towpath.

Elmira, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—An 18-year-old boy will be arraigned here today on a first degree murder charge in connection with the shooting of Richard C. Stocum.

Dist. Atty. Paul McCabe said the youth, John Newman, will appear before Chemung County Judge Donald H. Monroe, who will be sitting as magistrate.

McCabe said yesterday that Newman admitted in a signed statement that he shot Stocum in the victim's automobile during a quarrel over money on April 13.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—A mother of five children from Angola will represent New York state in the Mrs. America contest at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., next month.

Mrs. Margaret Ruof, wife of an Episcopalian rector, was named Mrs. New York state here last night over five other finalists.

Mrs. Ruof was selected after three days of competition in contests such as cooking and ironing. Mrs. Marie Gardner of Wellsville was named the runnerup.

Albion, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—A 17-year-old girl, Kathleen M. Wilson, of Knowlsville, was killed last night when the automobile in which she was riding swerved off a highway and crashed into a ditch in this Orleans county village.

A brand new look in beauty soap!

Gayla- America's first clear complexion soap with lanolin!

You'll love the way it makes you feel... fresh, fragrant, really clean!

So clear you can see it's as pure as can be!

So satin-soft to the touch you know it must be milder!

Gives you more lather faster... a luxurious lanolized lather!

WONDER BAR! That's GAYLA. There's never been anything like this clear, green bar. It's made by a process no other toilet soap can use!

GAYLA looks different. So clear you can see its purity. GAYLA feels different. So satin-soft, you know it must be milder and gentler for your skin. GAYLA smells different — a fresh, clean-all-over fragrance! And lather? That's GAYLA, too. You get lots of it faster . . . a luxurious lanolized lather that reminds you of an expensive cream as it clears clogged pores of dirt and make-up. In fact, GAYLA actually beauty-treats your skin every time you use it — for face, hands, all of you!

Yes, skin care becomes wonderfully simple, every bath simply wonderful, with GAYLA. Yet, as you soon discover, GAYLA is one luxury you can easily afford. What's more, it is unconditionally guaranteed by Lever Brothers. You like it, it likes you . . . or we'll disappointedly refund every penny you paid!

For head to toe beauty-care... Gayla ...the clear complexion soap with lanolin!

Jersey Couple Killed As Car, Truck Hit

Indiantown, Pa., April 25 (AP)—A New Jersey man and his wife were killed yesterday when their automobile and a truck sideswiped each other.

The victims were Linwood L. Godwin, 59, and his wife, Dorothy, 33, of Ventnor, N. J. The truck driver, Edward L. Goetchius, 41, Somerville, N. J., and two occupants of the automobile were injured.

The crash occurred on a four-lane highway, temporarily limited to two lanes during repair work. State policeman Edward Telatovich said the automobile and truck sideswiped while passing.

Both victims were thrown from their car. Sophie Botzick, 22, of Minersville, Mrs. Godwin's sister, was driving. She and another passenger, William Mosolino, 23, of Pottsville, were injured.

The offcial language of Israel is Hebrew, but street signs are in Hebrew, English and Arabic.

Steel in Hospital

Paris, April 25 (AP)—British actor Anthony Steel, husband of Anita Ekberg, is under treatment at the American hospital in suburban Neuilly and a hospital spokesman won't say what's wrong with him. The spokesman indicated Steel was not in a serious condition but replied "definitely not" when a reporter asked if he could talk with the actor. Steel was admitted to the hospital yesterday.

To Spend Nine Million

Syracuse, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—The Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. reports it will spend nine million dollars to build facilities for transmission of St. Lawrence power to 500,000 upstate consumers. Gustav W. Watters, executive vice president, said yesterday construction had begun of a 55-mile transmission line from Taylorville, Lewis county, to Utica, and a large switching station at Deerfield, near Utica. The transmission line will cost four million dollars and the switching station five million, he said. Niagara Mohawk has contracted to purchase from the State Power Authority 115,000 kilowatts of firm power from the St. Lawrence project. The first electricity from the project is not expected to be available until late next year.

Paltz Jaycees To Meet Monday

A meeting of the newly formed New Paltz Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held Monday, April 29, at 8 p. m. in the VFW rooms.

This meeting will be to finalize the forthcoming Charter Night dinner to be held at Ireland Corners on May 11. Ralph Dennis, president, would like to point out that any young man joining the local Jaycee chapter before Charter Night will be installed as a charter member.

An open invitation is extended to all young men of the community between the ages of 21 through 35 who might be interested, to attend the meeting Monday night.

P-TA Musical Review Scheduled April 26-27

Woodstock, April 25 — The Woodstock Parent-Teacher Association will present a musical review entitled "Art Comes to Hadies Hollow," written and directed by George Hard, Friday and Saturday, at the Woodstock School. Huston Richards is consultant director.

The cast includes, Bobby Williams, Jules Viglielmo, Ruth Sanger, Karen Matthews, Ruth Kelley, Peg Lawson, Mary Connick, Richard, Warren, Gary Kelder, James Cousins, Barbara Moncure, Elsie and Ellen Ross, Sarah Mulligan, Clifford Elliott, Nick Gentile Trio—Nick Gentile, Bill West and Vic Allen, Robert Eric Carlson, Abe Molyneaux, Maryann Buchman, Elaine Cousins, Carol Cousins, Susie Perlman, Tod Crawford, Bobby Frodsham, Pamalee Dendy, Gianni Lou Muller, Bill Wingate, Briana Gordon and Merrie Kramer.

"The Masterpiece" used in the show was painted by Bill Wingate, and the other paintings are by the eighth grade students of the Woodstock Elementary School. Janet Greene is stage manager, and Gioja Webster, assistant stage manager.

Serving on the program committee are: Leon Carey, Betty Schwartz, Gioja Webster and Loryne Connick.

Posters for the production were made by Caroline Wilson, John Pike, Margaret Wetterau, Dick Jeffrey, Edmund Good, Gioja Webster, Sam Wylie and John Striebel.

Will Dedicate Church Sanctuary on Sunday

Woodstock, April 25—Dedication of the newly refurbished sancutary will take place at the 11 a. m. service of worship in the Woodstock Dutch Reformed Church, Sunday, with the Rev. Harvey I. Todd officiating. A nursery is provided for younger children. Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m.

The Christian Endeavor Society invites everyone to attend its regular meeting Sunday at 8 p. m., at which time the work of the educational institutions of the Reformed Church in America will be reviewed illustrated with pictures.

On Thursday evening, May 2, the regular fellowship covered dish supper will be held in the basement. The congregations of the High Woods, Krumville, Lyonsville, Mt. Tremper and Shokan Reformed Churches are invited to share in this supper which will be served at 6:30 p. m. To facilitate and expedite matters at the end of this supper it is suggested that each bring his own eating gear. At 8 p. m., Dr. Margaret Rottschaefer who has just retired from medical mission work in India after 47 years of service, will address the gathering in the church. This meeting is open to the public and it is expected that many will be eager to hear her first-hand report on her experiences traveling through villages of southern India where she set up her roadside clinics and treated as many as 1,400 patients in a week. Treatment of leprosy was only an incident in her schedule, as she was the only one competent to give any sort of medical care to the thousands who came to her and there was no such thing as turning cases over to specialists. She had to be specialist in everything.

There are still a few seats to be had in the bus going to New York on Thursday, May 9. Reservations may be made through Mrs. William Hoffman or Mrs. Fred Toms.

Church Notes

Christ Lutheran

Woodstock, April 25—"Bedouin Christians", with Psalm 107:4 as a text, is the theme from which the pastor of Christ Lutheran Church plans to preach on the first Sunday after Easter at the 11 a. m. service. Last Sunday the Rev. G. Oliver Sands received into membership by profession of faith Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sylvester of the Saugerties road. Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Klinger brought their letters of transfer from the Sunbury and Mifflinburg churches in Pennsylvania, respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Zimmerman were in charge of the nursery at the parsonage last Sunday with Mrs. Frank Mayer and the Misses Arlene Van Kleeck and Carol Mae Ennist on Palm Sunday.

On Sunday from 8:15 to 8:30 a. m., the Wittenberg College choir and President Clarence Stoughton may be heard over the NBC radio network in a salute to Christian Higher Education.

Sunday School sessions with classes for all ages, including the confirmation group meet at 9:45 a. m. Nursery will be available in the parsonage for the wee folk.

The local group of United Lutheran Church Women are invited to meet in the home of Mrs. Percy Croswell, Wall street, Kingston, on Thursday, May 1, at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holumzer have volunteered to be a hospitality committee for the Sunday evening potluck supper meeting of the couples of Christ Lutheran Church and their families at 5:30 p. m., in the parsonage. The Rev. and Mrs. Sands have the devotions planned from the book, "Religious Living" by Georgia Harkness. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holumzer are the supper committee with Mr. and Mrs. John Wolven and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Jenkins in charge of publicity.

Choir rehearsal will be held at 7:30 p. m. on Thursday evening.

The Luther League plans an installation service for their officers and a dedication service of their lives and talents in the church on Monday evening, May 6. Parents and friends are invited.

Mrs. Erwin Holumzer entertained the Young Women's Guild at her home last Monday night. Members worked on the stuffed toys they are making and dressing. Mrs. Frank Mayer will be co-hostess when the group meets with Mrs. Sands at the parsonage on May 20.

St. Gregory's

Woodstock, April 25—Two infants and one adult were baptized at St. Gregory's Episcopal Church, by the Rev. Herald C. Swezy, vicar, following the Sunday Easter service. The infants were Kathleen Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Wilber of Bearsville, with sponsors Mrs. Fay Cousins and Irving Cousins, and John Leo, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Leo Fallon of West Hurley, with Mrs. Mary Shirick and George Shirick as sponsors. The adult is Mrs. Winifred Ethelyn Fallon, mother of John Leo Jr.

Christian Science

Woodstock, April 25 — Man's God-given right of progress will be emphasized at the Christian Science Church services Sunday. Scriptural readings in the lesson-sermon entitled "Probation After Death" will include the following from Isaiah (9:2): "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: They that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined."

The following selection will be among those read from "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (233:1): "Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them. This is an element of progress, and progress is the law of God, whose law demands of us only what we can certainly fulfill."

Craftsmen's Shop Reopens April 30

Woodstock, April 25 — The Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen's shop will reopen Tuesday, April 30, following the usual April closing of the last few weeks. The hours are weekly from 1 to 5:30, except Mondays.

Zena Card Party

Woodstock, April 25 — The Zena Country Club will hold a card party, Saturday, April 27, at 8:15 p. m. Refreshments will be served.

Peper's Bowlers Lose Set to Snyder Squad

Woodstock, April 25—Bowling in the Saugerties B League, Wednesday, April 17, Peper's Garage lost two games out of three to Snyder's refrigeration. Peper's scored 732-825-835 with handicaps of 29-9-30, and Snyder's 783-754-869. Individual scores for Peper's were: Nicponski 117-157-185; W. Harder 138-153-156; Williams 127-171-134; Jones 151-151-162; Peper 174-184-168. Individual scores for Snyder's were: Snyder 144-173; Finger 171-155-193; McDonough 149-155-161 Minkler 128-138; Mower 154-155-204; Sinnott 181-145.

Jayncees Fashion Show Scheduled on June 15

Woodstock, April 25—It was decided at the meeting of the Woodstock Jayncees, April 22, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Glass, that a fashion show will be held on June 15, at the town hall. The committee in charge is as follows: Mrs. Doris Ballinger, co-ordinator, assisted by Mrs. Winifred Phalen and Mrs. Patricia Hastie; Mrs. Margaret Glass, refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Sandy Summers and Mrs. Xena Poplewell; Mrs. Carol Cashdollar and Mrs. Ernie Levins, publicity; Mrs. Anne Bacarri and Mrs. Ruth Kinns, tickets; Mrs. Ernie Levins, decorations, assisted by Mrs. Mary Graham. Stores participating are Hilda Lightstone, The Little Shop, Rosalind's, Bonnie's and the Elaine Charles Shop. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Girl Scouts Meeting Scheduled April 29

Woodstock, April 25 — The Adult Girl Scout Woodstock-West Hurley Neighborhood will meet at the Woodstock School, Monday, April 29 at 8 p. m. Since this will be the final meeting before the annual Girl Scout Court of Awards, it is important that all members attend to make plans for the ceremonies.

The U. S. National Guard was named in 1824 for the Garde National that Lafayette commanded in France. Lafayette was then visiting a regiment of the New York State Militia.

Japan Asks Quick Agreement to End All Nuclear Tests

Tokyo, April 25 (AP)—Prime Minister Nobusuke Kiski called today for quick agreement to end nuclear weapons tests and a basic "meeting of minds" between Japan and the United States on all issues.

"We demand the prohibition of all (nuclear weapon) experiments . . . solely and purely from the standpoint of humanity," Kishi told the foreign correspondents' club in one of Japan's boldest statements on the atomic question.

"I hope from the bottom of my heart the agreement will be speedily concluded among the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union for either suspension or prohibition of all nuclear tests," he continued, speaking in English.

Later, answering newsmen's questions through an interpreter, Kishi conceded, "fortunately, or unfortunately, Japan does not possess atomic weapons and is not faced with a decision whether it would test them if it had them."

Probing Explosion

Pittsfield, Mass., April 25 (AP) — Authorities today sought to learn what caused the explosion which killed two men and injured several others at the Pittsfield General Electric Co. plant. The explosion yesterday demolished part of a four-story brick and glass chemical building and showered hot chemical and debris as far as 100 yards away. The dead were Albert Kosche and Charles Gomez, both 56 and both of Pittsfield. Floyd L. Sherman, 44, of Pittsfield, suffered severe burns over his entire body. The three were in the part of the 300-foot long building where chemical phenol is produced for use in plastics.

Ribicoff Veto Beaten

Hartford, Conn., April 25 (AP)—The Republican state legislature yesterday dealt expected defeat to the latest of Democratic Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff's vetoes. In doing so, the legislature passed into law two bills which will decrease and eventually abolish certain taxes on Connecticut insurance companies. Ribicoff had vetoed them on the grounds they were "giveaway, pure and simple." He claimed they would cost the state 16 million dollars in revenue over the next eight years.

Drop Emergency Powers

Santiago, Chile, April 25 (AP)—The Chilean government voluntarily divested itself of emergency powers last night, asserting the wave of countrywide disorders that brought them on had subsided. Congress, which had approved the government-requested powers for a period of 60 days last April 16, endorsed a government resolution calling for their termination. President Carlos Ibanez' administration had asked for suspension of civil liberties to prevent recurrence of anti-inflation demonstrations that left 25 persons dead and hundreds injured early this month.

Death Still Mystery

Tokyo, April 25 (AP)—The U. S. Army today said the death of a 49-year-old sergeant whose body was found in the home of a Japanese woman April 2 was "still a mystery." The 1st Cavalry Division identified the man as Hans Kurt Vodel, 49, of (1659 Hancock street) Brooklyn, N. Y. Vodel was a pastry baker. His body was found in a private home near Camp Drake. Identity of the woman tenant has not been announced, and the army has given no details of the death pending conclusion of its investigation.

Believers in magic often hold that a misstatement of the spell will cause the death of the practitioner.

Benson Reduction Of Supports May Affect Election

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Secretary of agriculture Benson's action reducing price supports for wheat may have a significant effect on the outcome of next year's battle for control of Congress.

The reduction — 22 cents a bushel, or 11 per cent, from the current support floor of $2—will take effect in the midst of 1958 election campaigns in which Republicans hope to regain control of the Senate and House.

Benson's action will have economic repercussions in broad farming areas from Ohio westward into Montana, Colorado, Washington and Oregon. It will be felt in such key states as Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, the Dakotas, Missouri and Illinois.

Brings Criticism

The reduction has brought sharp criticism from congressional farm leaders, including some Republicans.

If the GOP is to strengthen its position in Congress, it must make some gains in states where wheat is an important product.

Democrats declare they will make a major 1958 campaign issue of Benson's reductions in price supports for wheat, as well as for such crops as corn, oats, rye, barley, soybeans and sorghum grain—all valuable sources of farm income in the midwest.

Aides of Benson say the secretary believes wheat prices next year will average above the reduced support level and that, consequently, his action would have less political influence than some observers now think.

Benson bases this belief on the possibility that 1958 crops will be smaller than market requirements because of retirement of land under the soil bank program.

Passes Lie Test

Los Angeles, April 25 (AP)—A lie detector test has convinced police that Edward Aubele, 41, the 38th man to confess the "Black Dahlia" mutilation murder, is innocent. Aubele was jailed after blurting out a confession to the 1947 murder in which Elizabeth Short was cut in half. He later repudiated the confession. Police said Aubele would be detained until relatives can be reached to see if he should be hospitalized.

Israel to Free Woman

Jerusalem, April 25 (AP)—Israeli authorities said today Mary Frances Hagan, 29, of Huntington, W. Va., will be released from prison Sunday and will leave immediately for the United States. She was convicted last October of spying for Syria and sentenced to one year in prison. She was arrested last August and charged with violating Israel's official secrets act by collecting secret information and making notes of it.

100 Attend Baptist Men's Ladies Night

Approximately 100 persons attended the annual Ladies' Night program presented by the Men's Club of First Baptist Church Wednesday night in the church parlors.

Highlighting the program was an interesting travelogue with colored slides on Mexico presented by Mrs. Arthur E. Oudemool. Mrs. Oudemool discussed her recent trips to Mexico which she has taken with her husband, the Rev. Arthur E. Oudemool, and several young people from the area. She also displayed several curios brought back from that foreign nation.

Another feature was Fred Van Deusen with his tricks of magic and as usual he delighted his audience with his sleight of hand deftness.

Following a turkey supper, Lewis Gillette, program chairman, led the group in a community songfest after which Norman Bowen, club president, welcomed the guests and ladies. Mrs. David E. Smith entertained with a violin solo. Mrs. Arthur T. Pedersen accompanied Mrs. Smith at the piano.

The Rev. Harold J. Stephanz, pastor, pronounced the invocation.

Lucky Number

Milwaukee (AP)—Twins Roland and Donald Bezzella are 13, and their parents have the figures, mostly 13, to prove it. The boys were born at 9:13 a. m., Aug. 13, 1943. Their mother, whose birthday is July 13, was in room 413 at the hospital and had been married 13 years when the boys arrived. Ronald and Donald each have 13 letters in their names and were baptized on the 13th Sunday of the year. The boys will graduate from the eighth grade on June 13.

Good Taste Today

By EMILY POST

(Author of Etiquette, Children Are People, etc.)

IS MOTHER ENTITLED TO PRIZE?

A mother writes me as follows: "I have been with my daughter since January. She has given several bridge parties while I have been here and at a couple of these I have been holder of high score. My daughter never considers my score and always gives the prize to the next highest score holder. Is this right?"

If you are making your home with your daughter, in other words, if you are one of her family, then you should not accept the prize any more than she, as hostess, would. If you are a guest, then you are entitled to whatever prize your score wins, exactly as is any other guest.

Unkind to Giver

Dear Mrs. Post: The other evening we entertained for the first time in our new house. It was not a housewarming, but one of the guests brought us a present. I thanked her and put the gift aside. Since unwrapping it I've telephoned and thanked her again. My husband thinks that I was wrong not to open the gift and show it around. I thought this might embarrass the others. Anyway, the present was for us, not for them. What is your opinion?

Answer: I agree with your husband that it was very unkind not to seem to care enough about the present to look at it. There was no reason why anybody else should have been distressed because they brought nothing.

A Note of Sympathy

Dear Mrs. Post: Was it out of order to address a note of sympathy to the daughter of the deceased and not include her husband? I did include the whole family in the wording of my note but my husband thinks the note should have been sent to both just the same.

Answer: You were quite right in addressing your note to the wife alone.

So may readers have inquired about engraved wedding forms for a widow or a divorcee that Mrs. Post has written a leaflet by that title, E-9, which explains the proper wording and procedure for sending invitations or announcements. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

World News in Brief

Ike, Dulles Confer

Augusta, Ga., April 25 (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles conferred again today on the Jordan crisis after moving to bolster that tiny mideast kingdom against collapse and possible Communist domination.

The President interrupted a business meeting with Secretary of Labor Mitchell at the Augusta National Golf Club to take a telephone call from Dulles, who was in Washington.

After a phone conference yesterday Eisenhower and Dulles put out a statement saying they regard "the independence and integrity of Jordan as vital" to American interests and the peace of the world.

Some Hope Held

United Nations, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—Hope was held in some quarters at the UN today that Egypt's plan for running the Suez Canal might still be subject to some change. Others felt President Nasser had laid down his final rules for operation of the vital Middle East waterway.

Delegates generally declined on-the-record comment on the plan that provides complete Egyptian control over operations and toll money but calls for arbitration of disputes.

Acting at the request of U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge, the Security Council scheduled a session for tomorrow (10:30 a. m. EST) on the canal issue. Lodge said the Council should "take note of the situation regarding passage through the Suez Canal."

Declines Details

Washington, April 25 (AP) — Fresh information which Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) said may help show who was lying was sent to the Justice Department today along with conflicting testimony of a prostitute and a deputy sheriff.

McClellan declined to give any details of the additional information, except to say it went beyond that heard publicly by the special Senate committee he is directing in a probe of improper labor-management activities.

He concluded a one-day hearing yesterday with the comment that "I'm getting a little tired of this committee being imposed on by liars." He asked "appropriate action" by the Justice Department, and said this could be a perjury indictment.

Britain Joins U. S.

London, April 25 (AP)—Britain joined the United States today in proclaiming Jordan's independence and integrity as "essential" for the peace of the Middle East.

The British-American statements were interpreted by some diplomats here as an invitation for young King Hussein to call for help to maintain his throne.

Hussein, who already has blamed international communism for his country's troubles, probably could qualify for some form of aid from the United States—if he asks—under the anti-Communist Eisenhower doctrine for the Middle East.

Railroads above Anchorage, Alaska have problems. The trains clear the tracks of snow, but moose and other wild animals take over in the belief that the tracks have been cleared strictly for their comfort. Some casualties to trains, some to moose.

Materials Used By Doctors Are Shown at Theatre

An exhibition of surgical tools and materials, past and present, is on exhibit in the lobby of the Community Theatre, it was announced today.

The exhibit, arranged by the Auxiliary of the Ulster County Chapter, American Medical Society, is on display in connection with American Education Week.

The display is entitled "Progress — The Doctor and His Tools."

In the exhibit are some old medical instruments dating from Civil War times—sutures, scalpels, saws, etc. One of the most interesting items is a complete amputation kit used on Civil War battlefields.

There is also an old microscope of about 1860 vintage, a couple of old pestles and mortars, one of wood, a German book of 1800 with illustrations, explanations of various surgical instruments and appliances, etc.

Modern medical instruments, medical catalogue, etc., are also on display as contrast.

The display may be viewed in the lobby through Saturday.

Church Educator Set for Hartwick Baccalaureate

Dr. Paul C. White, vice president of the board of education of the United Lutheran Church in America and member of the National Committee of the Luther League of America, will deliver the Baccalaureate address at Hartwick College at 2:15 p. m. Sunday, June 9.

Dr. White has a distinguished record of service in the United Lutheran Church including his current post as secretary for Religious Education of the United Lutheran Synod of New York and New England. He holds several honorary degrees and has academic degrees including a PhD in religious education and general education from both Northwestern University and Columbia University Teachers College.

As a specialist in the field of religious education and youth work, Dr. White has published "Bible Challenges" for a Christian Youth Series, edited "Our United Synod" for the United Lutheran Synod of New York and authored various articles and pamphlets. He is also a lecturer on philosophy of education and social foundations of education.

This will be his second appearance on the Hartwick College campus during this academic year since he was the evangelistic speaker during Religious Emphasis Week held last November.

New Paltz Area Methodist Notes

Welcome Members

More than 500 worshippers attended the Easter services in the churches of the New Paltz Methodist Parish.

The chancels of Lloyd, New Paltz and Plutarch Churches were bedecked with flowers placed there in memory of departed loved ones. In New Paltz, the cherub, junior, and senior choirs sang traditional Easter anthems.

The Rev. Willett Porter and local preacher Kenneth Davis preached their respective appointments on "The Transforming Power of the Resurrection" and "What Shall We Do With Jesus?"

At the New Paltz 11 a. m. service new members were received into the fellowship of the church. Those young people confirmed by the Rev. Mr. Porter were: John Bollen, Martha Gruner, William Gruner Jr., Theodore Kroger Jr., Robert Martin, Richard Phillips, Linda Ronk, Joseph Ronk, Frederick Ruger, William Schoonmaker Jr., Edward Thompson, Herbert Van Valkenburgh, Dennis Winfield and Gary Winfield.

Also joining: Mrs. Charles Browne, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dammeir, Carl Dammeir, Richard Dammeir, Mr. and Mrs. William Gruner, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kroger, Miss Mildred McCrory, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sutter and Robert Weber.

The New York Annual Conference, of which the New Paltz Methodist Church is a part, with approximately 350 other Methodist Churches, will convene in its annual sessions Wednesday, May 1, at 10:30 a. m., in First Methodist Church, Newburgh. Bishop Frederick B. Newell will preside. The Rev. Willett Porter and Mrs. Alvin Beatty will be the ministerial and lay delegates, respectively, from New Paltz.

Cragsmoor Inn, Area Showplace, Reported Sold

Cragsmoor Inn on the Shawangunk Trail above Ellenville, one of the showplaces of the area, has been sold under contract by the Cragsmoor Company, Inc., to Kenneth Phillips, manager and majority stockholder of the Lake Minnewaska hotels.

It will be operated by Mr. Phillips along the same lines as the Lake Minnewaska mountain houses.

A contract for sale of the property was entered into about a week ago, it was disclosed today by Earl Houghtaling, Walden attorney who is president of the Cragsmoor corporation.

The sale includes the Cragsmoor Inn, which has accommodations for about 100 guests, the nine hole golf course and 187 acres of land. Renovation is now going on by the new owner and the Inn will be operated this summer.

It was also disclosed that Phillips has purchased the adjoining private estate of Mrs. Julia Beveridge to house additional guests.

Title to the Cragsmoor Inn property will pass to Mr. Phillips on June 20.

Houghtaling told a Freeman reporter today that the Cragsmoor Corporation had purchased the golf course in 1924 and the Inn in 1938 and has since operated the Inn. The Inn was opened and began operation in 1888. It was bought from the former owner, Mrs. Winifred Sturdervant in 1938.

Cragsmoor Company, Inc., leased the Inn last year to Ralph Brown, treasurer of the corporation who operated it.

Officers of the Cragsmoor Company, Inc., are Earl Houghtaling, president; Henry Munson, vice-president; Ralph Brown, treasurer, and Vincent Roy, secretary.

Cragsmoor Inn is located high in the Shawangunk mountains overlooking Ellenville and the Rondout valley. It has operated as a summer resort ever since its opening about 1888, Houghtaling said.

147 Attend 'Y' Camp Reunion

The 1956 YMCA Day Camp reunion Wednesday afternoon at the YMCA Youth Center was attended by 147 boys and girls, according to Louis H. Schafer, camp director.

Following his greeting Mr. Schafer explained the new features of the 1957 program and announced the names of senior counsellors and new leaders added to the camp staff.

He announced that the 1957 day camp brochure would be mailed to old campers registered last year. Release date will be in May. New boys and girls will also receive the brochure, he said.

Mr. Schafer reported that new diving boards would be installed at the lake and new floats will be added.

A Lone Ranger colored film was shown depicting life in Tumble-Weed Camp in Greene county. Cartoons were also shown.

Refreshments were served with the help of G. Herbert DeKay, president of the YMCA board of directors. Each camper received a souvenir.

Tillson

Tillson, April 25—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Minnikine recently entertained as guests Mr. and Mrs. A. Miller and Mrs. L. La Salle of Brooklyn and Mrs. Theresa Dougherty of Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. John Muller and family entertained Easter Sunday the following: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams of Oakland, N. J., Mrs. T. Dougherty of Syracuse, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Minnikine and Mr. and Mrs. Joel Woolsey and daughters, Mary Ann and Dorothy of Tillson.

MAKES DENIAL — Deputy Sheriff George Minielly, of Portland, Ore., tells the McClellan Senate committee in Washington (April 24) that the testimony of two other witnesses is a "hoax." He denied the stories of two women that he threatened them and forced them to sign a "false" affidavit. The affidavit pertained to James B. Elkins, Portland racketeer who testified earlier in the committee's probe of labor union operations in the Pacific northwest. (AP Wirephoto)

Drivers Forfeit Bail; Another Pays $20 Fine

Four drivers arrested on traffic counts forfeited a total of $100 bail in City Court today, and another paid a $20 fine.

Henry Aust, 57, of Box 656, New Paltz, who was arrested Wednesday morning on a speeding charge, paid a $20 fine, and Joseph Maiole, 35, of New Paltz, forfeited $15 bail. Aust and Maiole, arrested on the same charge, were picked up on the Boulevard.

Also forfeiting $15 bail was Roland R. Lewis, 26, of RD 2, Oakland, Md., who was arrested on a speeding charge Wednesday morning on East Chester street.

Lansing Sampson, 36, of 14 Ann street, was arrested Wednesday afternoon on charges of driving without a license and refusing to obey the command of an officer.

He was picked up at 73 North Front street by Guernsey Burger Jr. on a warrant charging him with being an unlicensed operator, and he was arrested at police headquarters by Officer Francis Buchanan charged with refusing to obey the command of an officer.

Sampson forfeited $25 bail on the license charge, and $25 on the second charge.

Robert J. Campbell Jr., 19, of River road, Ulster Park, who was arrested at 7:34 a. m. today on a speeding charge, forfeited $20 bail in city court. Campbell was picked up on East Chester street by officers George Dougherty and George Carpouzis.

The first circus came to the United States in 1792.

Publishers Elect Dwight Again

New York, April 25 (AP)—The American Newspaper Publishers Assn. today reelected William Dwight as president.

Dwight, publisher of the Holyoke Mass.) Transcript -Telegram, had served one one-year term. The association customarily gives its presidents two terms, alternating between large and small publishers.

Winding up its three-day convention, the ANPA elected J. Hale Steinman of the Lancaster (Pa.) Newspapers Inc., to the board of directors, and reelected all other officers and directors whose terms expired this year.

Steinman succeeds the late Richard W. Slocum of the Philadelphia Bulletin.

The final session was given over to a committee report on labor questions, a talk by Otto A. Silah of the Minnesota Star and Tribune on personnel and promotion problems, and a panel discussion on newspapers of the future.

The ANPA's special standing committee reported that disputes between employes and publishers do not warrant strikes.

Joseph Saxton, born in 1799, invented both the mechanical pencil and fountain pen. His workshops were in Philadelphia.

Gets Top School Pay

Chicago, April 25 (AP)—Benjamin C. Willis, superintendent of Chicago's public schools, yesterday signed a new four year contract making him the nation's highest paid school superintendent. The board of education's new contract to Willis provides annual increases until his present salary of $30,000 reaches $42,500. His present four-year contract ends Aug. 31 and under the new pact he will get a $5,000 raise in the first year and a $2,500 yearly pay hike in each of the three remaining years.

Interrupting a Vacation

ThreeGamesScheduled For High School Teams

Marlboro-New Paltz Lone League Contest

Three area baseball games are on tap for Friday as schoolboy ballplayers interrupt their Easter vacation and get back into action.

The only league encounter is at Marlboro where New Paltz Central is the visitor in a UCAL match. Elsewhere, Poughkeepsie hosts Wappingers Falls and Onteora travels to Cairo.

The Marlboro game is of little significance as far as the title race goes. Although it is very early to tell, it appears that both teams will be fighting to escape the cellar by the end of the season.

New Paltz has dropped its only two games, but looks considerably improved over the '56 team. The Huguenots were pasted by Onteora, 21-1, in their opener, but bounced back in fine fashion to lose a squeaker to Wallkill, 6-5.

Marlboro in Slump

Marlboro has looked least impressive of all UCAL clubs so far. Rondout Valley blanked the fruitgrowers 4-0 to launch the season and after that came lickings at the hands of Onteora (13-4) and Saugerties (24-1).

Onteora goes into the Cairo game with good credentials. Coach Tom Wheeler appears to have come up with an unexpectedly strong squad and may cause plenty of trouble before the year is over.

Saugerties, which was originally slated to face Highland tomorrow, is without question the class of the league and may be one of the top powerhouses in the area. The Sawyers are currently tied with Onteora and Wallkill for first place, but that isn't the real story.

The amazing power displayed by the Sawyers is the big thing. In three games, they have rolled up 67 runs while restricting the opposition to just one. It seems that Coach Bill Straub's outfit cannot be contained and are just too potent for the rest of the teams.

Sawyers' Swansong

As most everyone knows, this is Saugerties swan song in the UCAL and the ballplayers are apparently determined to leave an everlasting mark. Come next fall, the Sawyers will be competing in the DCSL.

Poughkeepsie, loaded with experienced pitching talent, will be making its first start of the campaign when it faces the Fallsmen. Although hit hard by graduation, the Pioneers have been established as early-season favorites to retain their DUSO championship.

Wappingers is always tough to beat and already holds a decision over a DUSO team—Newburgh—6-4. In their next start, strong Arlington edged them, 3-2, in the DCSL.

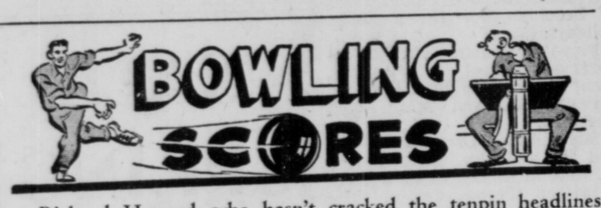
Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press)

Providence, R. I. — Harold Gomes, 129¼, Providence, knocked out Bobby Rogers, 129½, Chicago, 9.

St. Paul—Del Flanagan, 149, St. Paul, outpointed Kid Gavilan, 147, Havana, 10.

Portland, Ore. — Julio Menderos, 198, Havana, outpointed Benny Thomas, 182, Chicago, 10.



Richard Howard, who hasn't cracked the tenpin headlines with the consistency of yesteryear, was No. 1 man in the city last night.

The Tommie's Tavern anchor powered games of 214-244-193 for 651. That was just four pins better than the 647 hung up by Howard Spaulding on lines of 202-222-223.

CHARLIE MANFRO put together a hat trick of 203-212-202-617 and Vern Van Deusen equalled that triple with 202-216 in the major. Other top counts included Phil Battaglia 208-203-602, Frank Grimaldi 236-220-605 and Harold Broskie 208-214-610.

The results by teams:

Tommie's Tavern (1)—Milton Arlensky 528, Joe Ausanio 508, Dick Howard 651; 884-926-843-2653.

Leon Wilber (2)—Cliff Quick 528, Cliff Davis 501, Bill Lawrence 214-509, Phil Battaglia 602, Bruce Davis 204-581; 935-905-881—2721.

Prospect Dairy (1) — Frank Bruno 231-569, Don Sickler 202-546, Fred Schryver 225-576, Frank Grimaldi 605; 983-881-912-2776.

All bowlers, regardless of average, are invited. New bowlers are especially welcome. Bowlers who cannot make the meeting are asked to leave their names at the alleys.

Saugerties Dart League Protest Halts Playoffs

The disputed quarter-final play-off in Saugerties Dartball League won 2-1 by West Camp over Glasco AC Monday night will be replayed at Centerville Fire hall next Monday according to a ruling announced today by Virgil Finger, president of the league.

Following the games Monday night, a protest was lodged with league officials that West Camp played the important quarter-final contest with only eight men. According to the league rules a team must have nine men in the lineup during the play-offs. In the protest the Glasco AC through its manager Fred Davi claimed the games by forfeit.

A hearing of both sides conducted by the executive board of the league Tuesday night at Cedar Grove firehall brought out a counter protest by West Camp claiming that they also overlooked an infringement of the league rules by allowing Glasco AC to prevail as the home team with the privilege of batting last in all three games.

Rules Mix-Up

According to league rules the teams in the play-offs must toss to determine who shall bat first or last. In the hearing West Camp claimed that the infraction of the rule should have been protested before the game in order to permit West Camp the half-hour grace to secure the additional man. As no protest was lodged they assumed that both infringements of the league rules would be overlooked and the final results of the games would be official.

Glasco AC's won the first game 18 to 8 and West Camp won the final two 29 to 6 and 11 to 6.

In the other quarter-final game, Glasco A's defeated Quarryville two games, 14 to 13 and 8 to 5.

The Glasco A's will meet the winner of the replay game at Glasco in the semi-finals at a date to be scheduled by the executive board of the league.

McGrew in Braves Fold

Ted McGrew, for years a chief scout with the Dodgers, Pirates and Red Sox, now scouts for the Milwaukee Braves.

OPENING THE HOLE—Cleveland's Jim Hegan threw a good shoulder block into Frank House of Detroit on a play at the plate. In the football season, it would have made a big opening for a back. Here, it stopped a run from coming over here.

The IBC has worked out campaign strategy to make peace with Cus D'Amato on his return from the hinterlands so a Patterson fall match can be signed against Hurricane Jackson, a pet Norris project. . . .

Pete Burnside, the Giant rookie southpaw with the reputed $3,000,000 inheritance, whispers that it's closer to $30,000 . . . (he'll take the extra ciphers for his pitching box scores). . . .

The reformation of Bobby Bragan, character, to Bobby Bragan, big league manager, began in the box seats of the Polo Grounds on an afternoon in October, 1954 . . . when, watching the Giants and Indians in the World Series, Bobby turned to Branch Rickey, Jr., swept his hand to the diamond and asked, "What does a guy have to do to make it up here?" . . . and was politely told by The Twig it called for quitting his Hollywood-ish histrionics in the dugout and coaching box. . . .

With the Pirates, Bobby has instituted a fine bottle . . . players nicked for on or off-field lapses drop the sum in the bottle and at season's end it's raffled off. . . . Les Biederman, Pittsburgh baseball writer, is trying to get Bobby to donate it to a children's hospital charity. . . .

For Ebbets Field clowning, Emmett Kelly is being paid $20,000 . . . surpassing half the regular roster in salary. . . . The famed circus clown first jumped into national prominence at the old New York Hippodrome. . . .

Leo Durocher, in turning down Hank Greenberg's bid to manage the Indians last winter (he wanted a capital gains deal), told pal Hankus: "You owners are alike. You don't want anybody else to make money." . . .

No matter how urgent his business on trips to the Pacific Coast, Barney Ross, soon to be biographed in book and film, makes it a point to rendezvous with Henry Armstrong . . . the man who beat him so badly he drove him into retirement . . . but for which Barney is thankful, because when Armstrong had Ross out on his feet, he mercifully spared him the knockout blow. . . .

Mrs. Lou Gehrig, for one, thinks the current Yankees are a better ball club than the famed '27 Murderers' Row . . . on which her late husband was paired with Babe Ruth. . . .

North Carolina and arch-rival North Carolina State haven't let the basketball season end . . . they are supposed to be in a tug-of-war seeking a New York prep ace . . who got mixed up in connection with his letters of intent . . . signed to go to one school, without realizing it, when he really wants to go to the other. . . .

Wonder if the gridders at Texas are aware of the latest in their phys. ed. curriculum—a course in advanced roller skating. . . .

There's a lot of clucking because the Giants are playing Andre Rogers at shortstop this year instead of farming him to Minneapolis. . . . It doesn't show in the averages, but the Bahama babe has trouble going to his left, can't get out of runners' ways in making the double play, doesn't get a good jump in the field and can be fooled by slow stuff at bat . . . lots of natural ability, though.

The enterprising Baltimore Colts taking a leaf from baseball . . . holding grid tryouts May 11 for football free agents who believe they can crack pro noggins. . . .

Between you'n'me, doesn't Walter O'Malley act like he's already made up his mind to transplant the Bums, no matter what? . . .

Blue Jays' Relief Hurler Suddenly Becomes Slugger

(By The Associated Press)

Charlie Bowers can be proud of his 1957 batting average. It's 1.000.

At the end of last year's Eastern Baseball League season, the Schenectady Blue Jays' 27-year-old veteran was .040. He collected only one hit in 25 official appearances at the plate.

Bowers, a high school teacher from Wayland, Mass., isn't supposed to be a hitter. He's Schenectary's No. 1 relief pitcher. He made 61 mound appearances last year—only one as a starter—and won 11 games against five losses.

Last night he became a batting star. He cracked a single into center field to drive in the run that gave the 1956 pennant-winning Blue Jays a 5-4 victory over Binghamton.

Reading, also victorious last night, shared the league lead with Schenectady after two nights of play. Both are 2-0.

Reading defeated Syracuse 4-1. Springfield downed Albany 4-3.

Schenectady gave southpaw starter Joe Gaskin a three-run lead early in the game but his wildness continually had him in trouble. He gave way in the seventh-inning to Marco Mainini, who was scored on three times. The outburst put Binghamton ahead 4-3.

Morgan Homers Twice

Outfielder Bob Morgan, who homered twice and doubled once for Schenectady Tuesday in the season opener, singled home the tying run for the Blue Jays in the seventh .

Bowers took over the pitching chores in the eighth and allowed only one hit in the last two frames. In the bottom of the eighth, with runners on first and third, Bowers struck his game-winning blow.

At Reading, the Syracuse Chiefs, held scoreless for nine innings Tuesday and eight innings last night, came up with one run in the ninth. But it wasn't enough. Reading previously had scored three runs in the second and one in the fourth to rack up its second straight victory.

Charley Kolakowski pitched five-hit ball for Reading. The Pennsylvanians, however, were able to collect only five hits off a trio of Syracuse hurlers.

At Springfield, pinch-hitter Jack Lewis broke a 3-3 eighth inning deadlock when his liner took a bad hop past Albany's third baseman, Gale Dennis. Hal Holland, perched on third, scampered home with the run that gave Springfield its triumph over Albany.

Even Burdette Is Forgotten

Tebbetts Finally Can Smile; Redlegs Have Three Straight

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

You have to figure Birdie Tebbetts finally got around to smiling at himself in the mirror when he shaved this morning. In fact, if things keep going like this, he may even get around to apologizing to Lew Burdette.

It's been a tough first week for the chubby Cincinnati manager what with his Redlegs, loaded with pennant potential and power, losing their first four games.

But things looked great today. The breaks finally are coming his way and the Redlegs have won three in a row.

They got their third victory last night, piling up seven runs in the fifth inning on one hit and a batch of nine walks for a 9-5 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

The nine walks set a National League record. The Redlegs themselves set the old mark by granting St. Louis eight walks in one inning back in 1910.

The victory also boosted Cincinnati another notch in the climb from the cellar, leaving the Redlegs three games back of the co-leaders — Milwaukee and Brooklyn. The Braves kept the pace with a four-home run job that beat the St. Louis Cardinals 8-7 and the Dodgers made the most of five hits to beat the New York Giants 4-3.

Philadelphia also grabbed a seven-run inning while defeating Pittsburgh 8-5 in the other NL game.

Yankees Win Squeaker

In the American, the New York Yankees gained their third one-run-margin decision of the year, beating Baltimore 3-2; Kansas City belted Cleveland with five home runs for a 17-6 breeze and Boston nudged Washington 4-3 in 10 innings. Rain stopped Detroit at Chicago.

The Redlegs took their record walks from loser Moe Drabowski, Jackie Collum and Jim Brosnan to overhaul a 2-1 lead. Joe Nuxhall won it, but was tagged for back-to-back home runs by Jim Bolger and Cal Neeman, and finally gave up when Ernie Banks got off a two-run shot in the eighth.

Del Crandall put the Braves over the hump with his solo home run in the ninth off reliefer Willard Schmidt. Milwaukee twice had scrambled from behind, scoring every run on homers—Joe Adcock's second of the year and three-run smacks by Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron. Del Ennis helped build the early Card lead off Ray Crone with a two-run homer, but Herm Wehmeier couldn't hold it.

Giants Muff Chances

The Dodgers had all sorts of troubles with the Giants, but piled up three hits, a walk, sacrifice fly, error and passed ball to score all four runs in the fourth and chase rookie Curt Barclay to his second defeat. Sandy Koufax was the Brook starter, replacing Sal Maglie who showed up with a stiff neck, but rookie Rene Valdes claimed it with Clem Labine's mop up.

A total of 21 home runs were hit in yesterday's seven games and the Yankees snared two of them to beat the Orioles and Connie Johnson. Mickey Mantle's second of the year did the job in the eighth for reliefer Bob Grim, after Art Ditmar failed to hold on to the 2-0 lead Yogi Berra's homer supplied in the first inning.

Lopez Slams Two

Hector Lopez walloped a pair of home runs and drove in six runs for the A's, who got rid of Bob Lemon early in winning their third in a row. Ned Garver struck out nine and gave up only three hits for eight innings. But Virgil Trucks had to come on in the ninth when the Tribe scored five.

Ted Williams' third home run of the season gave the Red Sox a 3-all tie in the eighth, and a single by Jackie Jensen, following Billy Klaus' double, bagged it in the 10th. Boston, free of error in its first six games, made three boots—all by second baseman Gene Mauch.

Rosewall Scores 18th Over Pancho

White Plains, April 25 (AP) — Australia's Ken Rosewall turned in his second straight pro tennis victory over Pancho Gonzales last night, winning 6-3, 6-4 before 2,500 at the Westchester County Community Center.

Gonzales still holds the lead, 37-18, in their transcontinental tour. Rosewall came up with the only two service breaks of the match. The first was the eighth game of the first set and the other was the third game of the second set. The latter was at love for Rosewall's third love game.

In a preliminary match, Pancho Segura defeated Dinny Pails 8-5 for a 36-4 lead in their series with one draw.

Gonzales and Segura won the first set of the doubles from Rosewall and Pails 6-4 and the second stood at 9-9 when play was discontinued. Gonzales and Segura now lead 25 to 16 with one draw.

Harridge Rules Out Protest

Chicago, April 24 (AP)—President Will Harridge of the American League today stood by his ruling that a Washington-Baltimore night game called Sunday because of a power failure must be completed May 27.

Washington, which led, 2-1, before the lights went out in the fifth inning, had protested Harridge's decision. The game was the second of a double-header.

Yonkers Feature To Paul Jackson

Yonkers, April 25 (AP)—Paul Jackson, who finished out of the money in his last start, came from behind to win last night's Roanoke Trot at Yonkers Raceway before 19,794.

Heavily favored at $3.20, the winner took command at the head of the stretch and scored by a length over Mister Key. Thistle's Son finished third.

Paul Jackson, owned by Arthur McConville of Ogdensburg, N. Y., and driven by Eddie Cobb, was timed in 2:05 4/5 for the mile. It was his second success in four starts this season.

Babe Ruth Loop Slates Tryouts

First tryouts for the Babe Ruth League will be held Monday, April 29, at Dietz Stadium starting at 6 p. m.

Ernie Scribner and Leon Studt will be in charge of the workouts.

Forty nine boys, who registered during registration periods at Tommy Maines' Sport Shop and Frank's Sport Shop are requested to report.

Ricki Starr - Murphy In Wrestling Feature

Ballet Sensation Due Here on May 8

That darling of Kingston wrestling audiences — Ricki Starr—is scheduled for another appearance on Wednesday, May 8, at the municipal auditorium.

Promoter Ted Bayly of Troy announced this morning that Irish (Skull) Murphy, the bad man from County Cork would attempt mayhem on the ballet dancer in a best-of-three falls feature event.

This will be third appearance of the season in Kingston for the newest sensation of the mat industry and a repeat performance with Murphy.

Starr demolished Murphy in their first meeting and then disposed of Dr. I. Graham, the hypnotist on his last showing here about a month ago.

Bayly pointed out that Starr is in such tremendous demand he had considerable difficulty in getting him.

"I had to make a special trip to Washington to close out the deal," said the upstate promoter. "Every wrestling promoter in the country wants Ricki."

Two other supporting bouts will be announced later. Meanwhile fans who were terribly disappointed when Bayly's last scheduled show failed to materialize are jumping with joy.

Darlene Hard Gains

Sutton, England, April 24 (AP)—Darlene Hard, of Long Beach, Calif., today defeated Mrs. W. W. Shearing of England, 6-1, 6-4, in the third round of the women's singles of the Sutton tennis tournament. Miss Hard is the defending champion.

FULLMER-ROBINSON CHECKUP—Gene Fullmer, of Salt Lake City, Utah, is checked over by Illinois Athletic Commission doctor as Sugar Ray Robinson, center, watches during medical examination in Chicago (April 24). Both were approved for middleweight title fight next week. Fullmer holds title. The physician is Dr. Irving Slott. (AP Wirephoto)

Gavilan Sorry, But Flanagan Cops the Duke

St. Paul, April 25 (AP)—Del Flanagan had the choicest victory of his welterweight comeback and the fattest check of his career rolled into a meat package today—and Kid Gavilan had a mild apology.

Flanagan outmaneuvered the onetime champion from start to finish last night for a 10-round decision before a crowd of 9,434 that paid a record Minnesota gate of $43,796.

It earned the St. Paul Irishman some $9,400, or 25 per cent of the net. Gavilan, who failed to win a round on any of the three official scorecards, netted about $10,500 on 27½ per cent.

Gavilan, acknowledging that Flanagan was "one of the smartest" fighters he ever met, said he was sorry he couldn't make a better fight.

But he couldn't agree that he didn't win so much as a round. Referee Billy McCabe had it 100-91, Judge John Stanton 100-92 and Judge Dick Delaney 100-93.

Flanagan outweighed the exchamp, 149 to 147.

Hoad Gains Third Round at Naples

Naples, Italy, April 24 (AP)—Lew Hoad, seeking to regain top form after a two-month layoff with a bad back, gained the third round of the Naples international tennis tournament today by elminating Patricio Rodriguez of Chile, 6-4, 6-4.

The Australian Davis Cup ace was joined by a lesser-known fellow countryman, Neil Gibson who won two matches. Gibson beat Jerry Moss, of Miami, Fla., 4-6, 7-5, 6-1, and then defeated Eugenio Corti of Italy, 6-0, 6-3.

Hoad, the Wimbeldon titleholder, showed none of his overpowering 1956 superiority in beating Rodriguez, who is a second-rate player in international competition.

Dutchmen Sign Mains, College Hurlers

Rivenberg Says Straub May Miss 1957 Season

Saugerties Dutchmen have signed Clark Mains for another season and will have two college pitching stars on the roster for the 1957 New York-New Jersey League campaign.

Manager Jack Rivenberg made the announcement today from a hospital bed at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Albany where he is undergoing treatment. He expects to return to his home this weekend.

Rivenberg named Lou Payne of St. Lawrence University and Norm Farrell, senior righthander at Siena as the other flingers. Farrell, a native of Saugerties, was nominated to pitch Siena's opener against Clarkson Tech.

Straub Question Mark

There was only one jarring note in Rivenberg's optimistic report on Dutchmen prospects for the 1957 season in the greatly strengthened and expanded NY-NJ circuit. He may be without Bill Straub, the Saugerties High School coach who was the team's best hitter.

Straub is reported planning to start work on a new home and doesn't think he can devote enough time to baseball to whip himself into shape or meet the travel commitments.

Welcomes Kingston Players

Meanwhile, Rivenberg, admitting the club roster would need outside talent, issued a welcome to all Kingston players to attend the tryout and practice sessions. He said the dates would be announced later.

Rivenberg predicted keen competition between Saugerties and Fred Davi's Kingston Colonials for area players but said the Dutchmen were not interested "in stealing any ball players from anybody."

"We welcome any area player to the tryouts," said Rivenberg, "but will not go out and seek anybody. If a player shows up at our practice sessions we have to assume he would like to play with Saugerties."

A new rule in the NY-NJ league this season threw open the player market for the first time. In previous years the league fixed territorial limits for the various franchises.

The Dutchmen are scheduled to open the season at Poughkeepsie on May 22, "if we can field nine men," Rivenberg quipped.

Finals Repeat Shaping Up in N-South Amateur

Pinehurst, N. C., April 25 (AP)—A replay of last year's North and South Amateur golf tournament finals was in the making as the eight survivors moved into quarterfinals today.

Defending champion Hillman Robbins, Air Force Lieutenant from Memphis, Tenn., was top man in the upper bracket and the 1956 runner-up, Bill Hyndman of Abington, Pa., was shaping up as the sharpest golfer in the lower half.

Robbins teed off against Don Bisplinghoff, 1955 champion from Winter Park, Fla., and Don Wiland of Phoenixville, Pa., met Dr. Bud Taylor of Pomona, Calif., in upper half tests.

Lower Half Tough

In the lower half Hyndman meet a rugged customer in Arnold Blum, southern amateur champion from Macon, Ga., and Lawrence Cook, the Wrightsville Beach, N. C, policeman with the cross-hand grip, engaged two-time champion Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va.

Robbins was a sharp two under par in his 5 and 4 afternoon victory over Ed Tutwiler of Charleston, W .Va., Yesterday. Hyndman, six under par in three matches over a sunbaked No. 2 country club course, breezed by formidable Jack Penrose of Miami, Fla., 3 and 2, in his third round test.

'Marine Service' Due for Elmira Baseball Fans

Elmira, April 25 (AP)—The Elmira Pioneers of the Class D NYP baseball league next week may become the first and only ball club in the world to usher in a season with a private navy.

Because of public transportation diffculties, the Pioneers Monday will have a fleet of assorted boats to carry fans from Downtown Elmira two miles down the Chemung River to their ball park.

Although there are no statistics available, the Pioneers may also be the only baseball organization to have a "marine committee."

Ed Kelly, business manager and admiral of the fleet, says the boats will be used to carry the fans without charge to the ball park and back on opening day and the service may be continued on Sundays throughout the season.

City bus service has been curtailed here since Elmira operated a ball club in the Class A Eastern League two years ago. No city buses run out to the ball park now. The ball club is trying to arrange bus transportation on game days.

Gomes Defeats Bobby Rogers For 11 Straight

Providence, R. I., April 25 (AP)—Featherweight Harold Gomes, a clever boxer with a hefty punch in both hands, looked around for "more work" today after posting his 11th straight victory and 20th knockout in 42 pro bouts.

Gomes returned to the ring after five months' voluntary idleness and knocked out game Bobby Rogers of Chicago in the ninth round of a scheduled 10-rounder.

"I hope it will get me some good shots," the 23-year-old New England featherweight champion said after his impressive performance before 1,363 hometown fans and a national television audience.

Gomes, who at 129¼ weighed a quarter pound less than Rogers, had too much power and experience for the young Air Force veterans with only 15 previous pro bouts.

The New Englander floored Rogers for compulsory eight-counts in the first and fourth rounds and rocked him on several other occasions. The end came at 1:54 of the ninth.

May 18 Opening Night

Rhinebeck Sets Races

Ed Ryan, president of Mutual Racing Associates, operators of the Rhinebeck Speedway announced the opening date of the county speedway as Saturday, May 18.

Ryan announced that at a recent meeting of car owners and drivers of Mutual that the opening date was set along with the decision to run a dual show that evening. Bob Hart, head of the Midget Auto Racing Club met jointly with Mutual to assure all present that on May 18th a full field of full sized midgets will be on hand to present half the giant program planned for the opener. Hart, MARC champion, as well as president of the midget group promised more name midget drivers on tap than ever before due to many of the owners purchasing Ford midgets over the winter months.

The Mutual group will present the Sportsman type Non-Ford cars on the asphalt oval once again this year. Over the winter months many of the cars have been rebuilt and more expensive equipment installed assuring fans of more speed and action than ever before.

Work is progressing daily at the Rhinebeck Speedway with more improvements designed to suit the race goers. Lighting is being improved, the Dutchess county Agricultural Society has applied a new roof to the grandstand and more retainer fences are being installed. All new facilities will be in readiness for the May 18th opener.

New York-Penn, Oldest D Loop Set for Opener

Buffalo, April 25 (AP)—The nation's oldest Class D baseball League in point of continuous operation opens its 19th season Saturday in western New York and northwestern Pennsylvania.

Apparently with as many lives as the proverbial cat, the New York-Pennsylvania League is back to full eight-team strength after a shaky 1956 and a winter of aches and pains.

The league is sporting a new name (it used to be the Pony League), two new clubs in Elmira and Batavia and a new playoff system based on a split season. The latter plan will enable any "sick club" to keep its fans happy by getting a fresh start in mid-summer.

As usual, league President Vince McNamara predicts a banner year based on hot competition. The forecast could prove right, since the declining number of minor leagues means youngsters must hustle to hold the available jobs.

The defending champion Wellsville Braves open against the Corning Red Sox at Corning, Bradford, Pa., meets the Olean Oilers in Olean, the Elmira Pioneers travel to play the Batavia Indians and Erie, Pa., meets the Jamestown Falcons in Jamestown.

Reds' Big Klu Out for Spell

Cincinnati, April 24 (AP)—Just when Ted Kluszewski will return to the Cincinnati Redleg lineup as a regular still was indefinite today after a group of doctors examined him at Christ Hospital.

Gabe Paul, general manager of the club, said treatments will be continued. A physician recently concluded that calcium deposits were causing the pain in the left hip which has kept him from playing first base since the opening game.

Klu took an X-ray treatment yesterday in St. Louis and said his hip was very sore. He attributed the soreness to after-effects of the treatment. George Crowe has been filling in a first base for Cincinnati.

Have Jacket; Need Pitcher

Little Rock, Ark. (NEA)—Sometimes, even a rookie batboy has trouble getting accustomed when he breaks into baseball.

Little Rock's pitcher, Bob Schmidt, was wiping his forehead in the midst of a Memphis rally when the batboy came dashing out to him and held out a jacket for him.

Schmidt was as confused as the fans. He was plenty hot enough. Then it sunk in. He directed the kid to second base where the Memphis pitcher was standing.

"They just told me to take a jacket to the pitcher," the kid, who acted as Memphis batboy, explained.

McKay Wins Over Candy in Tennis

Houston, April 24 (AP)—Barry MacKay and William Qullian upset seventh-seeded Don Candy of Australia and eighth-ranked Grant Golden, respectively, in the fourth round of the annual River Oaks tennis tournament today.

Qullian, from Seattle, Wash., eliminated Golden, the nation's No. 10 amateur, 6-2, 6-2. MacKay, from Dayton, Ohio, defeated Candy, 6-2, 6-4.

Herbie Flam, the tournament favorite from Beverly Hills, Calif., was forced to three sets before defeating Richard Suchette, of Houston, 3-6, 6-2, 6-1.

Rest Cure Boon To Leader in Derby Open Golf

Louisville, Ky., April 25 (AP)—Walker Inman Jr. offered the "rest cure" today as a remedy for oversize golf scores.

Starting in only his second tournament of the current tour, the Bolton, Mass., perfectionist had a sizzling 67 to prove his point in the Kentucky Derby Open.

The transplanted Georgian took the winter off.

"I just needed the rest," he said after yesterday's pace-setting 18 holes.

His closest pursuer today as 116 golfers started the second 18 of the 72-hole showdown was Billy Casper Jr. of Bonita, Calif., who, despite a severe cold, toured the 6,575 yards in 68.

In solid contention with 69's were Peter Thomson, the three-time British Open champ from Melbourne, Australia; 1955 National Open kingpin Jack Fleck and Bobby Maxwell of Dallas, Texas.

Torturous hills and tricky greens took a terrible toll of the game's top swingers in yesterday's play.

Doug Ford, the Masters winner, was four strokes off the pace with an even-par 71.

Slugger Thomson In Golf Clinics

Jimmy Thomson, regarded by many as one of the longest hitters in golf history, will leave May 3 for a series of clinics under the auspices of the U. S. Air Force.

The tour opens in Wiesbaden, Germany, May 4, and ends there May 24. Clinics will be held in Paris, Tripoli, Morocco and several German cities.

Redlegs Sign Farm Assistant

Cincinnati, April 24 (AP)—John Sarlo of Ogden, Utah, today was appointed assistant to Bill McKechnie Jr., director of the Cincinnati Redleg farm system.

Sarlo was business manager of the Ogden team, of the Pioneer League, from 1939 to 1955. He was out of baseball last year after Cincinnati dropped Ogden from its farm system.

Sarlo will begin his new job April 30.

Trotter Dies

Ithaca, April 24 (AP)—Demon Always, a 4-year-old trotting colt valued at $20,000 died today after an operation at Cornell Veterinary College. The horse suffered an intestinal rupture Monday night while in his stable at Saratoga Raceway.

De Marco-Byers Sign

Boston, April 24 (AP)—Former welterweight champion Tony De Marco and boxing artist Walter Byers signed today for a 10-round bout May 25 at the Boston Garden.

Trainers Jim Fitzsimmons and Jimmy Jones who train Bold Ruler and Gen. Duke, respectively, both believe that about 10 horses will be in the running for the 3-year-old crown this year.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By JOE STETSON
Dog Editor

Not so long ago in a national publication an author went to great lengths to explain various reasons why backs could be weak and might be painful. The dachshund was used to illustrate a long, weak, back which would be plagued with trouble.

I wish to take no issue with the author's theme, but object strenuously to the statement that the back of good dachshund's are either long or weak.

Good dachshunds, like good basset hounds or some of the terriers such as the Skye, must be deep-keeled and well sprung in rib with well muscled loins. They must be ample in shoulder and quarter with plenty of lung and heart space in between.

Actually, though it may sound paradoxical, they are not long dogs. What I mean of course, is they are not long in body but short in leg. They have the proper structure for ample strength of back—all set on short limbs.

A dachshund, to be proportioned like the average dog, would not be shorter in body, but longer in leg.

Dogs of this build, therefore, are bigger than their height would indicate. In fact, it is the intention of breeders that the maximum size of the dogs that go to ground—and the dachshund is a terrier or techel to use the German terminology—be as large as possible for the places where they are expected to go.

It is true that by chance or injudicious breeding practice, a shelly type may be produced, but this can happen in any breed.

It certainly is the case with miniature dachshunds, but breeders of these toy types are quite conscious of the shortcomings of their miniature strains and endeavor to correct the situation.

Each year the winner of the $100,000 Preakness is draped with yellow daisies. The centers are dyed black with shoe polish to simulate black-eyed susans, Maryland's official flower.

2 Persons Hurt, Arrest Is Made Following Mishap

Two persons were injured and another was arrested Wednesday afternoon following a two-car aecident at John and Crown streets, police reported.

Injured were Mrs. Joan M. Machione, 23, of 173 Henry street, and Miss Betty Woods, 23, of 43 Foxhall avenue. Both were reported in "apparently good" condition today at Benedictine Hospital.

Case Put Off

Mrs. Ethelyn B. Feli, 52 of Hawleyville, Conn., was arrested on Mrs. Machione's complaint and charged with permitting an unlicensed operator to drive. The case was adjourned to May 2 in City Court today.

Officers Anthony Turck and Thomas McGrane reported at 4:35 p. m. that a 1952 sedan, owned by Paul M. Feli, and operated by Pauline Feli, 16, also of Hawleyville, headed east on John street, was in collision with a 1957 sedan, owned by Lawrence J. Machione, and operated by Mrs. Machione, traveling south on Crown street.

Miss Woods, a passenger in the Machione vehicle, suffered an injury to the right side of her face and left hip, police reported.

Towed From Scene

Mrs. Machione and Miss Woods were treated by a physician and taken to the hospital where their condition today was described as "apparently good."

The Feli car sustained damage to the entire front end, right front fender and right rear door, police reported, while the Machione vehicle was damaged on the entire front end and right side. Both cars were towed from the scene.

Arrest Kerhonkson Man After Accident

Arthur Quick, 60, of Kerhonkson, was arrested by State Police from the Ellenville station following a two-car accident Tuesday on Pataukunk road. Taken before Justice Abram Smith at Kerhonkson a $10 fine was imposed on a charge of being an unlicensed operator.

A station wagon operated by Marion Johnson, 31, Samsonville, owned by Alfred Johnson, traveling west and the car operated by Quick, going east collided when state police report the Quick car crossed over to the wrong side of the road and collided with the Johnson car. The car operated by Quick was owned by Claude Miller of RD, Accord. There was no personal injury but the cars were damaged.

Rider Hurt as Horse Runs Into Bakery

Officer Frank Monte reported at 6:45 p. m. Wednesday that a horseback rider was injured when the horse bolted and ran into a Broadway bakery.

The report said Jeate Leet, 23, employed by Continental Shows now appearing at Pan Am Field, Albany avenue extension, was riding a horse owned by George Fitzgerald, of 96 Bruyn avenue.

The horse apparently became frightened, the officer reported, and "darted over the sidewalk" head on into Ketterer's Bakery, 584 Broadway. The rider reported an injured right leg, the report said, and the horse struck porcelain blocks on the building and cracked two of them.

Subway Riders Delayed

New York, April 25 (AP) — Power failure at a switch just below the 59th street Independent Line station delayed thousands of Manhattan subway riders during the morning rush hours today. The Transit Authority placed the delays at up to 20 minutes but some riders said they had been stuck a half hour. The trouble developed about 9 a. m. and an hour later it still was causing delays. Southbound express and local trains were backed up for a considerable distance north of the station when the switch power failed and it was necessary to crank switches by hand.

During the historic Boston Tea Party of 1773, the tea dumped into the harbor was valued at nearly $90,000.

The death penalty now may be imposed by 42 of the 48 states, the District of Columbia and the federal government.

Democratic Club Will Discuss City Candidates

Possible candidates for the city election in the fall will be discussed at the regular meeting of Kingston Men's Democratic Club tonight at White Eagle Hall at 8 p. m.

The agenda will also include a discussion of the issues of the forthcoming campaign. William T. Mahoney, Democratic city chairman and Francis J. O'Neill, former Democratic city chairman will be in attendance.

All ward committeemen are expected to attend this important meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Man Dies, Baby Is Born in Accident

Torrance, Calif., April 25 (AP)—A man died and a baby was born in an automobile accident today.

Highway patrolmen said Chester G. Wasmer, 26, was driving his expectant wife, Emma, to the hospital. At an intersection the Wasmer car and one driven by William E. Martin, 51, collided.

A witness helped deliver Mrs. Wasmer's baby, a 9 pound 11 ounce son, on the scene. Both were in good condition at Gardena Hospital. Wasmer suffered only minor injuries, but Martin died later.

Check Grass Fire

Firemen were called at 9:14 p. m. Wednesday to check a grass fire across from 169 Murray street. Engine 2 from Cornell Station responded and the fire was extinguished with a booster line.

Reports Window Damage

Jerry Matthews, of 31 Broadway, reported to police at 7:48 today that a window in a door at that address had been damaged during the night with a BB shot.

Newburgh Youth Killed as Bike, Truck Collide

Newburgh, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—David McEachern, 8, son of a sergeant stationed at nearby Stewart Air Force Base, was killed Wednesday when his bicycle collided with a truck.

The accident occurred on Route 207, near the boy's home at Stewart Gardens, state police said.

The truck driver, William Haegele of Newburgh, was not held. He told authorities he swerved to avoid striking the boy, who was riding his bicycle on a shoulder of the road. Haegele said he heard a noise, alighted from his truck, and saw the boy's body.

Police Chief Critical

Murray, Ky., April 25 (AP)—A courageous police chief who drew the fire of a crazed gunman seconds before the gunman was shot to death was reported in critical condition today. Chief Novel McReynolds, unarmed and off-duty, was shot six times in a gun duel with 41-year-old Preston Moore last night. Moore, shouting and waving a gun, had spread a wave of terror, threatening to kill the mayor and "all officials of this county".

WALT DISNEY'S True Life Adventures

Personal Feud Is Seen Lurking In Lanza Case

Albany, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—Lurking in the background of the "Socks" Lanza parole controversy is a long-smoldering personal antagonism between Gov. Harriman and Senate Majority leader Walter J. Mahoney.

It is a well-known fact inside—although not outside—state government circles that the Democratic governor and the prominent Buffalo Republican hold one another in keen disdain.

Their hostility goes beyond the public rivalry that is expected of opposing political leaders. Between Harriman and Mahoney there is one of the behind-the-scenes friendliness that marks so many public political feuds.

The iciness of the relationship between the two men is in marked contrast to the open friendliness of Harriman and Mahoney's GOP counterpart in the Assembly, Speaker Oswald D. Heck of Schenectady.

Both Heck and Mahoney are considered possible Republican candidates to oppose Harriman in next year's gubernatorial election.

Calls Him 'Ozzie'

Heck has said publicly many times that he likes Harriman as a person. The governor has said he likes Heck—calls him "Ozzie." Mahoney and Harriman exchange no such bouquets.

Recent developments in the politically explosive Lanza case point up the Mahoney-Harriman feud.

When a report began circulating that Mahoney sought permission 10 years ago for a legislator to visit the convicted labor racketeer in prison, Mahoney flew off the handle.

He and his ghost writers cranked out a barrage of statements denying the report. In one of these angry outbursts, Mahoney accused Harriman of using "Communist-type" smear tactics. He said Harriman, a former U. S. Ambassador to Moscow, had "first-hand knowledge of those techniques."

Charges Smear

Later, Mahoney charged that Harriman's acting investigation commissioner, Arthur Reuter, was the man behind the story. Finally Mahoney declared that Harriman was "personally responsible" for an attempt to smear him.

Harriman would not comment.

Just how or when the Harriman-Mahoney feud started is hard to say.

It is known, however, that Harriman was offended early in his administration when Mahoney passed up one of the "must" social affairs at the executive mansion.

The governor also was highly irked when Mahoney once described him in a Senate speech as a "pickpocket." Mahoney said Harriman had picked the taxpayer's pocket by his veto of a tax-reduction bill sponsored by the GOP.

On the other side of the fence, Mahoney is said to have been angered by what some Republicans claim were political "double-crosses." He has complained privately that Harriman "ran out" on several legislative agreements.

In the final analysis, the clash seems to involve personalities more than anything else.

Harriman, a multi-millionaire with a Groton-Yale background, is frequently aloof and reserved, even among close friends. Mahoney, a lawyer with a facile tongue, is an expansive politician who knows the value of a handshake and a smile.

Whatever the season, the feud is very much alive—and growing livelier every day.

Search Is Resumed

San Diego, Calif., April 25 (AP)—An air and ground search resumed at daybreak today for two San Diego hikers missing in the rugged mountains of Baja California, Mexico. A helicopter pilot found a third late yesterday. Lt. Cmdr. Robert Adamson, pilot of a coast guard helicopter found Richard McBean, 18, of San Diego in good condition at about 5 p. m. Being sought today in the remote San Pedro Martir mountain area 200 miles south of here were Roy Downs, 55-year-old Spanish instructor at Brown Military Academy in San Diego, and Stephen Courtney, 16, a fellow student of McBean at the academy. The three got lost Sunday.

U. S. Team Leading

Skytop, Pa., April 25 (AP)—An American team of antique car lovers held a 1,000 point lead over their British rivals as a cavalcade of competing vintage autos prepared for a 207 mile journey to Connecticut today. The cars—in a cavalcade sponsored by the Veteran Motor Car Club of America and the Vintage Sports Car Club of Great Britain—arrived here at this Pocono Mountain resort last night after a swing through eastern Pennsylvania. The American squad, led by Robert Kilborne of New York in a 1911 Pierce-Arrow, has been plagued by motor trouble. Service trucks along on the cavalcade have kept them in the running. The Americans took the point lead in a hill-climb event at Mt. Penn near Reading, Pa. and speed maintenance runs between Reading and Skytop.

Mammoth Discovery

Bradenton, Fla. (AP) — A 25-pound tooth, a tusk and what appear to be rib and shoulder bones of a huge beast have been dug from a shell pit by laborers taking out paving material. The bones have been tentatively identified as those of the hairy mammoth which was a prehistoric ancestor of the elephant.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that, at its regular meeting on 8 April 1957, the Ulster County Board of Health, by authority of the New York State Sanitary Code, Chapter XIV, amended the Ulster County Sanitary Code, by addition, as follows:

ARTICLE VII "FOOD AND FOOD SELLING PLACES"

Section I (c): "Eating and Drinking Places" shall mean any hotel, public restaurant, public dining room, dining car, lunchroom, grill, tavern, drugstore, soda fountain, diner, roadside stand, steamboat, and any establishment where food or drink is served or sold to be consumed on the premises, and all kitchens and rooms appurtenant thereto or connected herewith and used for the purpose of storing, cooking, processing or preparing such food or drink. "These shall include Service Food Establishments as defined in Chapter XIV of the New York State Sanitary Code."

Section II (a): "The operator of any eating and drinking place as defined in Section I (c) and any Service Food Establishment as defined in Chapter XIV of the New York State Sanitary Code must secure a permit from the Commissioner for operation of such establishment. This permit will be issued after the Commissioner is satisfied as to compliance with the provisions of this Article and Chapter XIV of the New York State Sanitary Code. The permit will expire annually on March 31 and no such establishment shall be operated without a permit. The Commissioner may issue a temporary permit for the operation of a Service Food Establishment when, in his opinion, compliance with this Article can be secured in a reasonable period of time. The date of expiration of a temporary permit shall be fixed by the Commissioner. This regulation shall become effective April 9, 1957."

In witness to the above, I have hereunto set my hand this 9 day of April 1957.

DUDLEY W. HARGRAVE, M. D.
Secretary
Ulster County Board of Health

Wiltwyck Hose To Display New Truck on Sunday

Open house will be held Sunday beginning at 2:30 p. m. at the Kimbark Garage on Joy's Lane when Wiltwyck Hose Company No 1, will have on display its new emergency truck. The public is invited to visit the garage where the new truck is temporarily quartered. Refreshments will be served.

Fire Chief James Brett, Mayor Frederick H. Stang and the fire commissioners have been invited and there will be other guests.

The truck was recently purchased by the volunteers, equipped and painted and is now in service and ready to answer emergency calls.

All members of Wiltwyck Hose Company are requested to report in uniform for inspection on Saturday at 1 p. m. at the Kimbark Garage and to proceed from there to Stone Ridge where the company will participate in the celebration by the Stone Ridge fire company of the receipt of new fire apparatus.

The Stone Ridge firemen have invited a number of fire companies to participate, including members of Wiltwyck who will take their new emergency truck to Stone Ridge for the celebration.

Quake Kills Seven

Fethiye, Turkey, April 25 (AP)—An earthquake shattered the village of Fethiye on Turkey's southwest coast today killing at least seven persons and injuring 70. The governor of Mugla Province, in which Fethiye is located, saio 60 per cent of the buildings in the community of 6,000 were destroyed. Final casualty figures may be doubled when searchers finish combing the ruins, he added. The quake struck at 4:47 a. m. (11:47 p. m. EST, Wednesday) and lasted about 50 seconds.

WALLKILL NEWS

Wallkill, April 25—The Wallkill Lions Club will hold its postponed dance May 18 at the New Hurley Church Hall from 8 to 12 p. m. This is the dance which was postponed due to the ice storm last December. Tickets purchased for the December dance will be honored at this time. Next week the complete committee will be announced by the club chairman.

At 7 p. m. the Wallkill fire horn will sound Tuesday, April 30. This will be the signal for the beginning of the Cancer Drive for Funds. Once again this year the Ivanhoe Lodge of Knights of Pythias will make the house-to-house canvass on the one night only to secure the necessary funds. Residents are asked to be generous and respond in this fight for control of cancer.

The State Department of New York of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold a testimonial dinner for Mrs. Leonard Miscall, president of the Department, on Saturday, May 25, at 7 p. m. at Statlers Inn on the Cornell University Campus at Ithaca. Anyone from the local posts desiring to attend may make reservations by writing Mrs. Donald Hart, 340 South Geneva street, Ithaca. Deadline for reservations is May 10. Following the dinner a dance will be held at Post 221 at 415 Stewart avenue, Ithaca, for those attending the testimonial dinner in Mrs. Miscall's honor.

The Catholic Charity Drive for funds from St. Benedict's Church Parish here recently completed was successful. Mrs. Arthur Terwilliger, local chairman, has announced that a total of $620.50 was collected.

Boy Scout Troop 76 here will be busy this Saturday with a bottle drive and a cake sale. Scouts will meet at the cabin at 8:30 a. m. for assignment to trucks which will canvass the village to pick up empty return deposit bottles. It will help to have them ready in bags or boxes. Proceeds of the event will be devoted to purchase of troop equipment.

Mrs. Fred C. Terwilliger and Mrs. Marvin Wager are co-chairmen of the cake sale to be held in Masten's Store from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. Scouts are asked to bring their parents' contributions to the store for display before 10 a. m.

The Wallkill Softball League will have its annual meeting Tuesday, April 30, in the bank building at 7:30 p. m. All team representatives should attend. Election of officers will be held.

The annual luncheon of the Wallkill Women's Club will be held at the Beau Rivage at Balmville at 12:30 p. m. Chairman of the event will be Mrs. Alan VandeMark.

Wallkill Reformed Church Notes—Thursday evening there will be a regular choir rehearsal at 7:30 p. m. at the church. This is a change from the preceding announcement in which it was stated that the choir would not rehearse this week due to Easter vacation. Sunday regular Sunday school hour and lessons will begin promptly at 10 a. m., and worship services will follow at 11 a. m. with the Rev. Walter N. Van Popering delivering the message. Monday, April 29, the Department of Women's Work of the Reformed Church will hold its annual spring meeting at the Marble Collegiate Church in New York with sessions at 10:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. Speakers will include the Rev. Don De Young of East Harlem and Bishop Chellappa of South India. All women of the Reformed Church are invited. Tuesday, May 7, the annual spring conference of the Women's Missionary Union of the Classis of Orange will meet at the Wallkill Church at 10:30 a. m. There will be morning and afternoon sessions; luncheon will be served. Friday, May 10, the spring dinner of the Dutch Arms of the Classis of Orange will be held at 7 p. m. at the Pine Bush Grange Hall. The Rev. Donald MacNeill of the Arabian Mission, will be the speaker. Reservations must be made before May 1 with J. A. Ronk or S. Kelso Sloan.

The Wallkill Reformed Church will again this year participate in the Friendly Town venture. Anyone who will entertain one or more of these children from the Protestant Church of East Harlem from July 11 to July 25 should contact either of the co-chairmen, Sam Mizerak or Mrs. Clifford H. Caswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McHugh and sons, Thomas and Chris have returned home after an extended visit with their oldest son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] McHugh of Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs Richard Dunn and children, Nancy and Robert of Schenectady and Dr. and Mrs. Hallam G. Young and son, Richard of Glens Falls were Easter weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Dunn.

Miss Anita Terrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Terrell, is spending her Easter holiday from Delhi.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tuttle of Morristown, N. J., have been spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. James Smith Sr.

The Weather

THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1957

Sun rises at 5:02 a. m.; sun sets at 6:47 p. m., EST.
Weather: Cloudy.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 58 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 68 degrees.

Weather Forecast

NEW YORK CITY and vicinity: Mostly cloudy this afternoon but with periods of brightening and cooler than yesterday with temperatures ranging from near 60 degrees close to the water to the upper 60s inland. Cloudy tonight and early Friday becoming partly cloudy Friday afternoon. Lowest temperatures tonight near 50 degrees but warmer Friday than today with afternoon temperatures in the 60s near the ocean and in the 70s inland.

Winds from an easterly quarter today and tonight tending to become southerly on Friday. Velocities are expected to average 15 to 20 miles per hour this afternoon with a few higher gusts, drop off to 10 to 15 MPH tonight and average 15 to 20 MPH again Friday. Visibility over five miles except probably lowering to between one and three miles during the early morning hours.

OUTLOOKS: Saturday, partly cloudy and warm. Sunday, mostly fair with pleasant temperatures. Temperature Friday 6 a. m., 52.

SHOWERS

EASTERN New York: Cloudy and cooler today with showers in the west and north portions this morning and in the west portion again this afternoon and evening. Little or no rain in the southeast portion. Friday considerable cloudiness and somewhat warmer with scattered afternoon and evening showers and thundershowers. Highest temperature today in the upper 60s and 70s, lowest tonight in the 50s and highest Friday in the 70s and lower 80s.

Giles Gives Ruling

Cincinnati, April 25 (AP) — Warren C. Giles, president of the National League, today announced that in the future both runner who is hit by a batted ball and the batter will be declared out if the runner willfully permits himself to be struck. The American League also is adopting a similar rule, effective today, Giles said.

Drenching Rains Begin to Taper Off in Texas

Dallas, April 25 (AP)—Surging rivers and creeks, driven out of their banks by six days of torrential rains, flooded parts of Texas today, but the cloudbursts that drenched portions of the state yesterday began tapering off.

Tornadoes, thunderstorms and winds of hurricane force battered the state yesterday. The cloudbursts drove already swollen rivers and streams out of their banks in central Texas, flooding parts of several towns and highways. At least five persons were reported drowned.

Disaster forces were being mobilized to handle serious floods.

Hundreds Evacuated

Several hundred persons living in south San Morcos, 29 miles south of Austin, were evacuated to higher ground last night as the Blanco River rose threateningly.

But the river hit a crest of 27 feet early today and started receding and the families who fled returned to their homes.

Water swirled eight and nine feet deep through 10 city blocks. If the river had risen another foot, flood waters would have inundated some 30 city blocks in the residential area.

Danger Seen Over

Officials said the immediate danger was over unless the area receives more heavy rains.

Lowlands remained flooded.

Gov. Price Daniel authorized National Guard troops for emergency duty if they are needed to aid flood-stricken Belton and Killeen, south and west of Waco. Hundreds of persons were evacuated in those areas late last night. Killeen had more than 6.50 inches of rain.

The Weather Bureau lifted a tornado and severe weather alert, but scattered thundershowers were expected again today in east Texas.

The heavy rains in the past six days had already pushed many streams near flood stages and many spilled over after yesterday's downpours.

Monty Leaves Hospital

Knowland Sees No Tax Cut in Present Session

Washington, April 25 (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said today he doubts there will be any tax reduction legislation at this session, even if sharp cuts are made in President Eisenhower's budget.

"It would be more prudent and sound from a fiscal basis to wait until early next year before considering tax reduction," the Republican Senate leader said in an interview.

Cut Forecast

Some Democrats in Congress, among them Speaker of the House Rayburn (D-Tex.), have been talking about a tax reduction bill this year to take effect next Jan. 1. House Republican Leader Martin (R-Mass.) also has been forecasting a tax cut next year, but has not specified when he thought Congress may act on it.

Knowland said no one is asking that a tax reduction take effect earlier than next January, and added:

"No responsible members of Congress is suggesting that we should reduce taxes in time of deficit that would just up the national debt."

"Personally, I would apply from two to three billions dollars a year on reduction of the national debt before any tax reduction is considered," he said.

Better Estimate

By waiting until next January or later, Knowland said, Congress will have five or six more months to test estimates on government income and spending.

Along that line, Knowland said he wants to look further into Pentagon reports that defense agencies now are spending at a rate of 38 billion dollars this fiscal year, which ends June 30, or some 2 billions higher than had been estimated.

A speedup in production of guided missiles and other new weapons was said by Pentagon fiscal officers to have quickened the spending rate in recent months.

Two Are Sentenced

Syracuse, N. Y., April 25 (AP)—Two Scotia men were sentenced today in State Supreme Court to terms in Attica State Prison for the rifle slaying of a Morehouseville lumberjack. John A. Nicoll, 29, who police said fired the shots that killed Charles Friel, 25, on Nov. 15, 1953, was sentenced to serve two and a half to five years at Attica. Irvan A. Fredericks, 25, was sentenced to a one and a half to five year term at Attica.

Finn Coalition Quits

Helsinki, Finland, April 25 (AP)—The Finnish coalition government today decided to resign as a result of Prime Minister K. A. Fagerholm's defeat for the chairmanship of the Social Democratic party. The Socialists yesterday elected 76-year-old Vaino Tanner as their chairman over Fagerholm. The vote was 93 to 94. Tanner is the Finn least likely to win a popularity contest in the Kremlin. After World War 2, the Soviets demanded the Finns place Tanner on trial as a war criminal, charging he was a major influence in Finland's participation in World War 2 agaist the Soviet Union. Tanner was convicted and imprisoned for two years.

Federal makes it a picnic!

Leave window worries behind with Federal's Tilt Master ...America's No. 1 tilt-action COMBINATION WINDOW

IT'S NEW... It's Incomparable
WE'LL PUT THIS WINDOW ALONGSIDE OF ANY IN THE INDUSTRY AND LET YOU BE THE JUDGE.
100% ANODIZED
We warrant every anodized window sold by Federal to remain free of corrosion.

It's new! It's automatic! It's a picnic to use! Tiltmaster is the amazing combination storm and screen window that requires less maintenance than others. For the first time you can clean both sides of a window from the inside regardless of the weather. Air tight construction protects your family from wintry drafts, giving maximum savings on fuel bills. Panels are slip-proof, jam-proof and burglar-proof. See it operate in your home with no obligation.
